Oswald Letters To Pro-Castro Outfit Released

Set Himself Up
As New Orleans
Representative

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI has obtained a series of letters written by the late Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, two New York newspapers reported Sunday.

The Times said Vincent Theodore Lee, 36, of New York, chairman of the committee which is sympathetic to prime minister Fidel Castro, released copies of six letters from Oswald. The originals, Lee said, were turned over to the FBI.

Lee said they showed that Oswald had set himself up as its New Orleans representative without sanction of the national office, according to the Times.

FBI Sets Search In Motion

The Journal-American, in a copyright story, said the FBI had found letters from Lee in Oswald's effects, but would not discuss them.

When Oswald's alleged connection with the committee was first reported, soon after the assassination, Lee said he could not recall the man and that the committee had no New Orleans branch.

After inquiries from the FBI, Lee said he searched committee files last Thursday and found the Oswald letters.

Oswald's first letter, reportedly written late April from Dallas, reported he had passed it "Fair Play for Cuba pamphlets" wearing a home-made placard reading, "Hands Off Cuba. Viva Fidel." He asked for more pamphlets. Lee said he didn't know where Oswald got his original pamphlets.

Membership Requested

The second letter, dated May 26, reported Oswald had moved to New Orleans and asked for formal membership in the committee. He said he was thinking about forming a committee branch and was considering renting a $30-a-month office at his own expense.

The third letter, the first one addressed "Dear Mr. Lee," said he had "jumped the gun on the charter business," and had SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Two amateur plumbers were arrested Sunday, police reported, because they attempted to steal a kitchen sink without first turning it off the water.

Mrs. Rose Mancini became alarmed when water began pouring through the ceiling of her ground floor grocery store and apartment. She called the Fire Department rescue squad. Firemen and police who answered the call went to an unoccupied apartment on the second floor.

There, police said, they found Sam Gary, 35, and Robert L. Chapman, 38, with pipe wrenches in hand trying to remove the sink. The men were jailed on burglary charges.

Bolivia Shuns Red Demands For Hostages

Johnson Offers U.S.
Aid To Gain Release
Of Four Americans

LA PAZ, Bolivia (UPI)—The Bolivian government declared Sunday it will not bow to Communist pressure to gain the release of four American officials held as hostages by Red-led miners at Catavi.

In Washington, President Johnson pledged full assistance—whatever may be necessary—to President Victor Paz Estenssoro to gain the Americans' release. There were unconfirmed reports Bolivian troops moved into Oruro near Catavi as a precaution. The miners grabbed the score of hostages, including the Americans, to force the release of two Communist labor leaders.

The Americans, ironically, were seized as they delivered aid for progress funds to Catavi officials for the construction of two model schools.

The U.S. State Department identified the hostages as U.S. Information Service officers Thomas M. Martin of (3070 Decatur Ave.) New York, and Michael A. Kristula of (826 First Ave.) Cadillac, Mich.; Bernard Rifkin, New York City, labor adviser for the U.S. Agency for International Development; and Robert Fergerstrom, a Peace Corps volunteer from Honolulu.

The Communist-led miners of the rich Siglo Veinte tin mine near Catavi, 150 miles south of La Paz in the western Andes, seized the hostages Saturday and demanded release of Irineo Pimentel and Federico Escobar.

The two Communist leaders of the powerful National Miners' Confederation were arrested at the conclusion of a union congress in Colquiri Friday and formally charged with murder in the slaying of a rival union chief.

The interior ministry declared in a communique Sunday the accused murderers will not be released "under pressure of any kind."

In Washington, White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger announced President Johnson's offer of assistance to Paz Estenssoro.

The Americans, Dutch engineer Cornelius Bloot, German technician Kurt Baumeister, and at least 16 Bolivian mines ministry officials, were being held prisoner in the union-owned "voice of the miners" radio studio in Catavi.

Arturo Crespo, a leader of the miners who seized the hostages, said over the radio Sunday morning that all were well. Saturday Martin was allowed to speak by radio with U.S. officials in La Paz.

EDITOR'S NOTE—Richard Honeck, 84, has been in prison for 64 years. After the Associated Press revealed that he had no mail or visitors for nearly 60 years, Honeck received more than 3,000 letters. Until recently, Honeck, who has been in prison 64 years, didn't even know his niece existed. She was born two years after he went to prison in 1899 for murdering a former school teacher.

Honeck's last visitor and mail came in 1904. The visitor was a friend and the single letter was a note from a brother, now dead, expressing concern about

Congress To Begin Adjournment Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—An adjournment push is under way in Congress with at most 10 or 11 working days remaining before this 12-month session ends, either Dec. 13 or Dec. 20.

House leaders plan to file a discharge petition on the omnibus civil rights bill Monday and then bring up a compromise which would put a $3.599-billion ceiling on annual foreign-aid spending.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., has blueprinted a heavy schedule for his colleagues in hope of getting final action on some eight annual money bills for the current fiscal year which began July 1.

Mansfield seeks passage first of a $4.5-billion annual public works money bill, carrying some $225 million more than allowed by the House.

Then he hopes to complete approval of a compromise $13.3-billion money bill, known as the independent offices appropriation. It includes operating funds for the expanding space program, the Veterans Administration and numerous other federal agencies.

When the House completes action on the foreign-aid compromise, Mansfield plans to call it for Senate action with a floor fight already assured.

The Senate-House compromise eliminated or watered down many restrictive amendments inserted by both Chambers of Congress. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said this will mean a Senate floor battle.

On Tuesday, the Senate is expected to consider a $1.6 million construction money bill carrying about $55 million more than voted by the House.

Wednesday has been set aside for Senate eulogies for the late President John F. Kennedy, a former senator from Massachusetts.

Thursday, the Senate will consider a $1.8 billion appropriation

LBJ Attends Lehman Rites In New York

Guarded By 5,000;
Security Tightest
In City's History

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson made a two-hour rush visit to New York City on Sunday, attending the funeral of former New York Gov. Herbert H. Lehman and calling on former President Herbert Hoover during his first trip from Washington as chief executive.

The tightest security arrangements in the city's history were in effect when Johnson arrived at Idlewild Airport aboard the presidential jet on which he had been sworn in after President Kennedy's assassination in Dallas.

In line with security measures, it was not announced in advance that the President would call on Hoover at his residence in the Waldorf-Astoria Towers after attending the rites for Lehman.

10-Minute Visit

Johnson spent about 10 minutes with Hoover in his 32nd-floor residence, thanking him for a note the 89-year-old former president sent him last week as Johnson began his new duties.

Thirty-five policemen on motorcycles accompanied Johnson's motorcade on the 18-mile drive from the airport to Manhattan and back again.

Some 5,000 uniformed police, plainclothesmen and Secret Service agents patrolled rooftops and streets along the route, which was not announced in advance.

The President waved from inside a closed limousine to scattered crowds along the street. The only sizable crowd was at Temple Emanuel-EI, where Lehman's funeral was held. Lehman, 85, died last Thursday. He had been a Senate colleague of Johnson.

Presidential Party

Johnson was accompanied by his wife, Chief Justice Earl Warren, associate Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, and Sens. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., and others.

The crowd inside the temple was estimated at 2,200 and another 1,500 heard the service over a public address system in a downstairs hall.

Johnson and his wife sat in the first row during the 32-minute service. Secret Service men and city detectives lined the walls and balconies to the side and rear were closed off.

The tight security contrasted sharply with arrangements for Kennedy's last visit to New York on Nov. 14-15, when he requested no motorcycle escort and drove through the city almost as an ordinary citizen.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Premier Sarit Thanarat, 55, one of the closest of U.S. friends in Southeast Asia, died Sunday.

His government immediately was turned over on an interim basis to an equally staunch supporter of the West, Thanom Kittakachorn, deputy premier and defense minister.

A medical bulletin said the premier died of kidney and heart complications following aggravation of an old liver disorder.

He was under the care of a team of U.S. Army doctors, headed by Lt. Gen. Leonard Heaton, U.S. Army surgeon-general, who flew here after Sarit's liver condition took a bad turn Nov. 28. Heaton had treated Sarit previously in the United States.

The Cabinet declared Monday a day of national mourning. All official functions were canceled for three days.

The nation's monarch, King Bhumibol Adulyadej, 36, named Thanom acting premier until a formal royal appointment can be made on Sarit's successor. Earlier, Sarit's Cabinet announced it had agreed to nominate Thanom for the job.

Sarit, an army man since the age of 20, had been in the government actively since 1947. In September 1957, Sarit led a military coup that overthrew the government of Field Marshal Pibulsonggram and drove him into exile in Japan, where he remains today.

Sarit laid heavy emphasis on economic development for Thailand and was one of the strongest opponents to the spread of communism in Southeast Asia.

Big Pan Am Plane
Apparently Struck
By Lightning Bolt

ELKTON, Md. (AP)—A big jet airliner with 82 persons aboard burst into flames and crashed near here Sunday night.

Two hours later an Elkton fire department official said: "There are no survivors, as far as we know."

Pan American World Airways said the craft was a Boeing 707 bound from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia with 74 passengers and a crew of 8.

Maryland State Police said the plane, groping its way through a storm on an instrument approach to Philadelphia, apparently had been struck by lightning. Its wreckage came down in a rain-soaked cornfield about two miles northeast of Elkton.

The scene is some 54 miles northeast of Baltimore, where the plane had made a stopover moments earlier.

Mrs. Frank Ulmer, a resident of the rural crash area, said the crash had occurred shortly before 9 p.m. (EST).

A severe storm accompanied by lightning had hit the area about that time.

'Like Big Ball of Fire'

Mrs. Helen Warner, cashier at a roller rink just across the border near Glasgow, Del., said merrymakers there "thought it was an atomic bomb."

"The explosion lit up the whole rink and parking lot and shook the building," she said. "Some of the skaters were standing by windows and saw the whole thing happen."

Jerry Greenwald, 20, of Hockessin, Del., who was also at the rink, said it had "looked like a bomb explosion."

"There was a big flash, and a few seconds later you could see the wing torn off," Greenwald said. "You could actually see people falling out. The plane came down slowly, and when it hit the ground it looked like it exploded again."

Witnesses said one of the plane's four engines barely had missed one of the few homes in the area, and burning parts of the craft set some of the area aflame.

"The whole field was on fire," Greenwald said. "All we could see was rubble."

The area was soon swarming with fire trucks, state police and spectators who clogged the roads and impeded the passage of officials and rescuers.

The Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington said a team of about 10 investigators was en route to the scene.

An FAA spokesman in Washington said the plane was on a holding pattern near the New-castle, Del. Airport, flying at 5,000 feet and awaiting clearance to approach the Philadelphia International Airport.

Pan American World Airways said the craft was a Boeing 707 bound from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia with 74 passengers and a crew of 8.

Maryland State Police said the plane, groping its way through a storm on an instrument approach to Philadelphia, apparently had been struck by lightning. Its wreckage came down in a rain-soaked cornfield about two miles northeast of Elkton.

The scene is some 54 miles northeast of Baltimore, where the plane had made a stopover moments earlier.

Mrs. Frank Ulmer, a resident of the rural crash area, said the crash had occurred shortly before 9 p.m. (EST).

A severe storm accompanied by lightning had hit the area about that time.

"Like Big Ball Of Fire"

Mrs. Ulmer said her son, Clarence Ulmer, had seen the flaming wreckage of the plane plummet "like a big ball of fire."

Maryland State Police said the recovery of bodies had begun within 90 minutes after the crash.

"It was an explosion in the air," said a state police headquarters official.

"Mrs. Helen Warner, cashier at a roller rink just across the border near Glasgow, Del., said merry-makers there "thought it was an atomic bomb."

"The explosion lit up the whole rink and parking lot and shook the building," she said. "Some of the skaters were standing by windows and saw the whole thing happen."

Jerry Greenwald, 20, of Hockessin, Del., who was also at the rink, said it had "looked like a bomb explosion."

"There was a big flash, and a few seconds later you could see the wing torn off," Greenwald said. "You could actually see people falling out. The plane came down slowly, and when it hit the ground it looked like it exploded again."

Engine Just Misses Home

Witnesses said one of the plane's four engines barely had missed one of the few homes in the area, and burning parts of the craft set some of the area aflame.

"The whole field was on fire," Greenwald said. "All we could see was rubble."

The area was soon swarming with fire trucks, state police and spectators who clogged the roads and impeded the passage of officials and rescuers.

The Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington said a team of about 10 investigators was en route to the scene.

An FAA spokesman in Washington said the plane was on a holding pattern near the New-castle, Del. Airport, flying at 5,000 feet and awaiting clearance to approach the Philadelphia International Airport.

Brandt Sees Scant Hope For Redland Yule Visits

BERLIN (UPI)—Mayor Willy Brandt said Sunday his administration would continue to explore the possibilities of Christmas visits by West Berliners to relatives inside the Iron Curtain but declared he would not bow to present East German demands.

In a radio address, Brandt told Berliners: "I must ask you to damp down your hopes. My own are not great. But I refuse to admit until the last that the matter is hopeless."

He said the city government would feel out Communist authorities on the question of the Christmas passes but that any further steps would be taken without publicity.

He indicated, however, that there was no chance of agreement if the East Germans stuck to their present demands.

"This price would be too high," Brandt said. "The cost would be our right of existence. On that basis, there can thus be no discussion."

East German Communist Leader Walter Ulbricht earlier in the day reiterated demands for negotiations in the new year on a peace treaty ending Western rights in Berlin.

In a year-end message on East German television and radio, he called for "strengthening of efforts to achieve a German peace treaty and to set aside the source of conflict in West Berlin."

He said he thought German reunification "is possible" but only through negotiations "on a basis of equality" with West Germany.

Ulbricht said he was willing to go to Bonn for negotiations with West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, if Erhard invited him.

"I would also like to see the Ruhr area again and speak directly with the workers there," he said.

Guild And Star Agree On Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—Negotiators for the Washington Newspaper Guild and The Evening Star Newspaper Co. agreed Sunday on a new two-year contract calling for minimum wage increases totaling $22 weekly in four steps for experienced newsmen.

Members of the Star unit of the Guild (Local 35 of the American Newspaper Guild) accepted the settlement by voice vote at a meeting.

Terms of the last contract were hammered out at an all-night session of negotiators with two federal mediators. The old contract expired at 12:01 a.m. The Star unit of the Guild had authorized a strike at a meeting last Tuesday.

The settlement raises top minimums for newsmen after six years experience from $158 weekly to $180 in four $5.50 steps six months apart. A general increase of $12 weekly in four equal steps over two years was provided for other job classifications and for those earning more than the minimum scale.

White House Bomb Story Proves False

BALTIMORE (AP)—A report that someone was carrying a bomb to Washington to blow up the White House was apparently false, Baltimore police said Sunday.

They reported a man had walked into the Southwestern District police station Saturday night, saying a friend of his was supplying a car for a man who planned to take the bomb to Washington.

Police said the FBI and Secret Service had checked out the story and found no basis for it. They said the man told them he was on leave from Spring Grove State Hospital here, a mental institution.

Extra-Muscle Delta Gets New Space Mission

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The remarkable Delta space rocket, which started as a low-key, 12-shot program four years ago, still is going strong after 21 launchings and no end in sight.

Delta's already bright future was enhanced last week when the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the first mission for the rocket called thrust-augmented-Delta-TAD.

The assignment is to launch the Syncom 3 satellite into a stationary orbit 22,300 miles above the intersection of the equator and the international dateline to serve as a space communications link between the United States and wide areas of Asia.

The firing is set for April, in time for Syncom 3 to televise next year's Tokyo Olympic games to North America.

TAD receives its extra muscle from three solid-propellant rockets attached to the side of the Delta first stage. These produce 53,850 pounds thrust each and increase over-all first-stage thrust from 172,000 to 333,550 pounds — nearly matching the 367,000 pounds generated by the Atlas, presently this nation's most powerful operational space booster.

The addition of the solid rockets will mark the fourth time Delta has been beefed up since the first rocket in the series lifted off from Cape Kennedy—then Canaveral — on May 13, 1960.

"He shook his head and said, 'I just can't believe that anyone would care enough to come all this way just to see me. You don't know how I feel just to know I have a niece, let alone that she would offer to take care of me.'"

Miss Maxine Shulte, a secretary, said after watching the couple, "I'll bet that's the most he's talked in the past 10 years put together. In the office he never says anything. He just sits there politely."

Mrs. Orth and her uncle talked for two hours. Prison authorities relaxed rules to permit them to stand together on the front steps of the administration building. Honeck then got his first unobscured view of the outside world since he was transferred to Menard in 1935.

The next day, three members of the Parole Board interviewed the couple at length. Mrs. Orth said she wanted to care for her uncle in his final years.

The board asked about her financial situation. "I was widowed at the age of 34," she replied, "and I managed to raise my five children to become good citizens. All of them served in the war, including my daughter who was a WAF. I have overcome financial obstacles before."

A board member said later: "The only thing I can say at this time would be that this (Mrs. Orth's care) would appear to be a fair solution to this case."

As they parted, Honeck took his niece's hand and said:

"This has been the happiest time of my entire life. I sure hope everything works out in our favor. This is just the nicest thing that has ever happened to me — your visit and our long talk with the parole board."

UPPER MERLBORO, Md. (AP)—Two previously segregated restaurants in Prince Georges County served three Negroes Saturday in a test of Maryland's public accommodations law by the Fellowship for Equal Rights.

Melvin Moore, fellowship vice president, said the two restaurants, one in Suitland and the other near Andrews Air Force Base, refused service to Negroes in June but served them Saturday "without any fanfare."

Moore said the fellowship intends to file a complaint with the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems against a third restaurant, located in Upper Merlboro, which refused to serve the Negroes Saturday.

In a fourth letter, on Aug. 1, Oswald said he had rented an office, but it was closed three days later on the landlord's claim that it had to be remodeled. He said he continued working out of a post office box and conducted street demonstrations.

One street demonstration, Oswald wrote, had resulted in an attack by some anti-Castro Cuban exiles and to his being "officially cautioned by the police."

There was no elaboration. "This incident robbed me of what support I had, leaving me alone," Oswald wrote.

The fifth letter, dated Aug. 12, reported he had been fined $10 for the "incident," but that he thought the press and television coverage would be good for the committee.

In the sixth letter, dated Aug. 17, Oswald reported he had been interviewed on television, resulting in a flood of calls and invitations to debate.

Attorneys For Convicted Thompson Plan Strategy

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—Attorneys for T. Eugene Thompson will begin checking the law Monday to determine what road to take in appealing his conviction of first degree murder for plotting the death of his heiress wife.

Hyam Segell, the 36-year-old Thompson's defense attorney, said there will be no lightning-like moves to get the boy-faced father of four out of prison.

Thompson, a criminal attorney, was moved swiftly to the state prison at Stillwater, Minn., Saturday — the morning after the jury returned its verdict.

Segell said he doubted he will be able to start any public legal action Monday. He said he would spend the day "checking the law" to determine which of the various possible approaches to take leading to an appeal of the conviction to the state Supreme Court.

Thompson is one of three persons charged with first degree murder in the beating and stabbing of his wife last March 6. The prosperous attorney had bought more than $1 million insurance on his wife, Carol, in the 13 months preceding her killing.

Thompson may make one trip out of the prison. He has been served a subpoena to testify in the trial of the alleged middleman in the death plot, Norman J. Mastrian, 39, former Minneapolis boxer, charged with first degree murder.

The summons orders Thompson to appear at Ramsey County District Court Jan. 8, two days after Mastrian's trial is scheduled to start.

Mastrian is accused of "going shopping for a killer" and finally hiring alcoholically inclined sometimes-salesman Dick W. C. Anderson, 35, Minneapolis, to perform the "contract."

Anderson, who has pleaded innocent to first degree murder described the killing in graphic terms during Thompson's trial. He told the jury he did the job for $3,000, with a $200 down payment.

Tragedy Ends Shopping Trip

MIDLAND CITY, Ala. (UPI)—The family was going Christmas shopping. The smaller children were starry-eyed with hopes of talking to Santa Claus. There were 12 passengers in the old station wagon when it stalled Saturday on the ungraded railroad tracks inside the city limits here about a block from the downtown area.

The Atlantic Coast Line freight train could not stop. It hit the old car broadside. Nine members of the William Henry Langford family were killed instantly. Two more died a short time later in a hospital.

Only 13-month-old Margaret Ann Langford survived the grotesque collision that scattered "bodies up and down the road like a bunch of rags." She was hospitalized for observation of cuts and bruises.

Blame The Hump On A Slump—Try Exercises

It's an accumulation of over-paddings, the fleshy bulge at the base of the back of the neck called a dowager's hump. But over-weight and advancing age alone didn't put it there — it's far more likely to be the result of slumping and a habitually wrong position of the head. The woman who carries herself beautifully never gets it. The woman who doesn't may develop the unhappy hump even though she's not conspicuously the grandmother type.

We find that most women object to the hump particularly because it seems to be a dead-giveaway of too many birthdays, and they accept it as just that and a misfortune that nothing can be done about. This isn't true as you can prove if you follow these corrective exercises faithfully. Providing, of course, that your weight is sensible and that you straighten up and hold your head high at all times.

1. Sit with your hands flat on your chest, fingers touching and elbows up and outward. Without moving your hands, pull your elbows back as far as you can, slowly, and then return slowly to the first position. Repeat 10 times.

2. Sit with your arms outstretched at shoulder level. Fling them up diagonally behind your shoulders and drop your head to your chest at the same time. Do this slowly, return slowly and repeat 15 times.

3. Lie on your back with your knees bent and the soles of your feet on the floor. Spread your arms out at shoulder level, with the backs touching the floor. Bend your elbows sharply and touch your fingers to your ears. Very slowly return your arms

County Gets Bid For Two Trucks

Only one bid was received on Friday by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners on providing two heavy duty trucks for use by the Roads Department.

Gratton Ford Company offered to supply the two trucks for a net price of $5,995 each. Included was the offered price on a 1954 dump truck on a trade in.

The firm also offered an alternate bid of $6,295 on each of two trucks which are of heavier construction than the bid requested.

The bids were turned over to Skelly and Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the board, for tabulation and recommendation.

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Recently the girls in our college were polled. The question asked was this: "What do you dislike most about the men on this campus?"

The results revealed that the worst thing a fellow can say when he asks for a date is this: "Are you doing anything Saturday night?" No girl wants to admit she doesn't have a date. Some girls actually say, "Yes, I'm busy," when they aren't doing a darned thing.

The second most creepy guy on campus is the one who asks: "What would you like to do Friday evening?" The boy who calls a girl for a date should have some sort of entertainment in mind. It's unfair to put the girl in the awkward position of suggesting a movie or a play or a dance because the fellow may not have the money or transportation for such an evening.

The girls unanimously agreed that the biggest drip of all is the guy who stands at the door and says, "May I kiss you?" It's not too bad if the girl doesn't want to be kissed — all she has to say is "No." But waiting for a kiss after saying, "Yes, you may" is gruesome. The fellow who hasn't confidence enough to risk a rebuff is just as well off to forget it.

BETTY CO-ED
DEAR BETTY: Here's your letter and I agree wholeheartedly. And now may we hear from the fellows? What are your beefs about the females on campus? Send 'em, and I'll print 'em—that is, if they're printable.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I went shopping for Christmas gifts for our children and ended up in a big argument right in the toy department.

My husband wanted to buy some fancy gun and holster sets for our sons. I said NO. I feel strongly that there is too much emphasis today on violence, shooting and murder. Any evening of any week will find the living-room piled high with corpses from TV thrillers. These shoot-'em-ups are labeled "family entertainment."

I am opposed to a daily diet of brutality and death and I do not allow our 7-and 9-year-old boys to watch TV indiscriminately for this reason.

My husband says guns, cowboys and Indians and cops and robbers are all part of growing up. He claims make-believe shooting games are a healthy outlet for youthful energies, and since the good guys always win in the end it teaches children respect for the law.

We did not buy the guns yesterday but my husband said I should write to you because he's sure your answer would support his viewpoint then and he could buy the guns later. What do you say?

—MYRNA

DEAR MYRNA: Sorry, but if your husband is waiting for me to tell him to go back and buy guns for the kids, he'll wait a long time.

I recommend as "energy outlets" football, baseballs, ping pong sets, roller skates, ice skates, tricycles and bicycles. These are vastly better than guns. I agree with you, mother—continuous viewing of brutality and violence is bad for children. Guns are for killing, and toy guns make a game of destruction.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WORTH IT OR NOT: Definitely NOT. By the time this character learns the rules of the game he'll be too old to make the team. Who needs him?

CONFIDENTIAL TO IN LOVE FOR REAL: It's natural for teenagers to want to learn from experience but divorce is one experience you can live without. If it's "real" it will still be real two years from now.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ
Q. 1—As South you hold:
♠ A J 5 3 ♥ 7 6 ♦ K 6 3 ♣ A K Q
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass
3 ♦ Pass 4 ♠ Pass
5 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—It is evident from the bidding that partner's real concern is with the heart situation. Obviously, he does not have first round control or he would have mentioned it. And if he had second round control, he would have bid a slam himself. You are obliged to pass, because the loss of two heart tricks stares you in the face.

Q. 2—As South you hold:
♠ 10 9 4 3 ♥ 5 2 ♦ A 9 3 2 ♣ K J 9
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass
2 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Your hand represents almost the maximum permitted for a single raise. It would, therefore, be highly improper for you to make a mere return to three spades, which would describe a mediocre raise. The suggested call is three diamonds, a temporary bid. It may prove that partner is probing for big things and, if his next bid happens to be three hearts, we would suggest a four club bid to show the fit in that suit. After that, he should be on his own.

Q. 3—As South you hold:
♠ J 3 ♥ K 4 3 ♦ Q 9 7 4 ♣ K 8 5 2
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 NT Double ?

What do you bid?
A.—Redouble. You have nine points, assuring your partnership of a minimum of 25, giving the adversary a maximum of 15 points. You are therefore prepared to punish them when they escape at the two level, and if permitted to play one no trump redoubled you will have a course as easy game.

Q. 4—As South you hold:
♠ A 9 4 ♥ K J 8 6 ♦ 6 2 ♣ 8 7 3 2
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♥ 1 ♠ 2 ♥ 2 ♠
3 ♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. The full strength of your hand was shown on the first round by your free bid of two hearts. If this is all partner needed to produce a game he would have bid four hearts himself.

Q. 5—As South you hold:
♠ 6 3 ♥ J 10 9 7 5 3 ♦ 2 ♣ A K 10 4
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1 ♥ Double ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Four hearts. The preemptive bid is suggested for two reasons. If partner has opened somewhat light in the third seat, the hand may easily belong to the opponents. In that case your jump bid will make it more difficult for them to get together. Furthermore if West should now bid four spades, you will be in an excellent position to decide on subsequent action. If partner doubles four spades you have adequate defensive values and, if he passes, you can bid five hearts with the assurance that the save will be inexpensive and you may even be able to fulfill an 11 trick contract.

Q. 6—As South you hold:
♠ 6 ♥ 10 9 8 7 ♦ K Q 6 3 ♣ A 8 6 5
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 1 NT Pass
3 ♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—We recommend an ace showing bid of four clubs at this point. While it is true that partner may, for the time being, interpret this as showing a club suit, we intend to raise hearts at our next turn to bid. This will make it clear that we are looking for a slam. An alternate bid is an immediate leap to five hearts but this might not work out well if partner has a worthless doubleton in one of the minors.

Q. 7—As South you hold:
♠ 5 ♥ 6 5 4 2 ♦ 10 8 6 3 ♣ J 9 4
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1 ♠ Pass 1 NT Pass
2 ♠ Double Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. To bid three hearts would be quite out of order. Partner has undertaken to defeat the contract of two spades by himself. It is not your position to act as a nursemaid to him.

Q. 8—As South you hold:
♠ A ♥ A J 10 7 5 ♦ Q 8 6 2 ♣ 9 7 3
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
Pass Pass 1 ♥ 2 ♦
2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. You have opened third hand in the hope of obtaining a part score and should make no further move. Partner should have a self-sustaining spade suit to bid at this increased level.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South you hold:

♠ A J 9 5 3 ♥ 7 6 ♦ K 6 3 ♣ A K Q

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass

3 ♦ Pass 4 ♠ Pass

5 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—It is evident from the bidding that partner's real concern is with the heart situation. Obviously, he does not have first round control or he would have mentioned it. And if he had second round control, he would have bid a slam himself. You are obliged to pass, because the loss of two heart tricks stares you in the face.

Q. 2—As South you hold:

♠ 10 9 4 3 ♥ 5 2 ♦ A 9 3 2 ♣ K J 9

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass

2 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass

3 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Your hand represents almost the maximum permitted for a single raise. It would, therefore, be highly improper for you to make a mere return to three spades, which would describe a mediocre raise. The suggested call is three diamonds, a temporizing bid. It may prove that partner is probing for big things and, if his next bid happens to be three hearts, we would suggest a four club bid to show the fit in that suit. After that, he should be on his own.

Q. 3—As South you hold:

♠ J 3 ♥ K 4 3 ♦ Q 9 7 4 ♣ K 8 5 2

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 NT Double ?

What do you bid?

A.—Redouble. You have nine points, assuring your partnership of a minimum of 25, giving the adversaries a maximum of 15 points. You are therefore prepared to punish them when they escape at the two level, and if permitted to play one no trump redoubled you will of course score an easy game.

Q. 4—As South you hold:

♠ A 9 4 ♥ K J 8 6 ♦ 6 2 ♣ 8 7 3 2

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 ♥ 1 ♠ 2 ♥ 2 ♠

3 ♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. The full strength of your hand was shown on the first round by your free bid of two hearts. If this is all partner needed to produce a game he would have bid four hearts himself.

Q. 5—As South you hold:

♠ 6 3 ♥ J 10 7 5 3 ♦ 2 ♣ A K 10 4

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass Pass 1 ♥ Double ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Four hearts. The preemptive bid is suggested for two reasons. If partner has opened somewhat light in the third seat, the hand may easily belong to the opponents. In that case your jump bid will make it more difficult for them to get together. Furthermore if West should now bid four spades, you will be in an excellent position to decide on subsequent action. If partner doubles four spades you have adequate defensive values and, if he passes, you can bid five hearts with the assurance that the save will be inexpensive and you may even be able to fulfill an 11 trick contract.

Q. 6—As South you hold:

♠ 6 ♥ 10 9 8 7 5 ♦ Q K 6 3 ♣ A 8 6 5

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 ♠ Pass 1 NT Pass

3 ♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—We recommend an ace show. A bid of four clubs at this point. While it is true that partner may, for the time being, interpret this as showing a club suit, we intend to raise hearts at our next turn to bid. This will make it clear that we are looking for a slam. An alternate bid is an immediate leap to five hearts but this might not work out well if partner has a worthless doubleton in one of the minors.

Q. 7—As South you hold:

♠ 5 ♥ 10 9 8 7 5 ♦ 10 8 6 3 ♣ J 9 4

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

1 ♠ Pass 1 NT Pass

2 ♠ Double Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. To bid three hearts would be quite out of order. Partner has undertaken to defeat the contract of two spades by himself. It is not your position to act as a nursemaid to him.

Q. 8—As South you hold:

♠ A ♥ A J 10 7 5 ♦ Q 8 6 2 ♣ 9 7 3

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

Pass Pass 1 ♥ 2 ♦

2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. You have opened third hand in the hope of obtaining a part score and should make no further move. Partner should have a self-sustaining game suit to bid at this increased level.

Violence And Its Aftermath

Violence breeds violence, and lunacy tends to spread. Word of the assassination of President Kennedy had hardly been flashed about the country until threats of other violent acts were being made in far more than their usual number.

Within a few minutes the governor of Georgia received an anonymous phone call, making veiled threats on his life. An erroneous report of a bomb aboard an airplane carrying Astronaut Scott Carpenter and his wife delayed their flight and caused an exhaustive examination of the plane.

Across the nation in the next several days there were dozens of reports of threatening telephone calls. An anonymous caller told a telephone operator at the Kansas Capitol the building was to be bombed. And so on.

Police officers say every spectacular crime raises the danger of imitation by other persons, who may have hoped for years to do something of the sort and may have been brought to the point of actually committing the act by hearing of another such event.

Sometimes such incidents are regarded as pranks — in very poor taste but harmless examples of macabre humor. This is nonsense. People who make such treats are ill and potentially dangerous. Every effort should be made to find and treat them.

These Days

By John Chamberlain

'Siberia' Is A Mental Hospital

A news item from Moscow says the Soviet Union's leading literary newspaper, Literaturnaya Gazeta, has come out with a warning against heaping "indiscriminate praise" on such poets as Yevgeny Yevtushenko, whose autobiography was recently published in the West. If I were Yevtushenko, I would be shivering in my boots.

My reason for saying this is that when Nikita Khrushchev gets genuinely annoyed, he has a way of getting rid of opposing voices without seriously damaging his reputation in Western Europe and the United States for being "liberal" in comparison to Stalin. The offending artists sink without trace — and no great hullabaloo is raised anywhere.

The Khrushchev "image" of liberality toward his intellectuals was in danger a year ago when there was a short-lived campaign against "deviators" from the party line in art. Khrushchev had visited an art gallery, where he looked at some avant garde stuff and reacted as any peasant from the Ukraine might have reacted. The Khrushchev snorts, some of which were fairly obscene, touched off a spirited party attack on Yevtushenko and other poets and writers for giving way to decadent influences from the West. But Khrushchev failed to sustain the campaign against his uneasy intellectuals, and his zealous mouthpieces in the Soviet press fell silent.

Taking advantage of the lull, Yevtushenko and Andrei Voznesensky, among other mild dissidents from the "party line" in art, have begun to publish their poems again in Soviet magazines. The appearance of these poems is what has caused the editor of Literaturnaya Gazeta to prick up his ears. He has warned the young dissidents that the "constructive" approach to criticism, as established by Khrushchev in the changeover from Stalin's terroristic censorship, should not be construed as an invitation to ideological license.

The relatively polite terms in which the present warfare between the party-liners and the dissidents in Soviet letters is being conducted should not fool anybody. For the penalty in Soviet Russia, if Khrushchev takes serious exception to a writer's opinions, is a banishment as cruel as anything that happened in Stalin's time. The only thing that has changed is the verbiage used to cover the punishment. Khrushchev has heard about George Orwell's obfuscating "newspeak," and that is all.

Time was when Stalin, if he disliked a writer, would simply ship him to Siberia to wear himself out in slave labor in an Arctic cold camp.

To Khrushchev, this sort of thing is a trifle unsophisticated. The Khrushchev method of getting rid of an unwanted dissident voice is to call in the psychiatrists, get a verdict of "mental disturbance," and then permit the "doctors" to commit the poor writer to a "hospital." That this could be worse than Siberia to a free spirit is obvious.

Not so long ago, in the London Sunday Telegraph, David Floyd, a journalist and editor who spent several years as a counselor in the British Embassy in Moscow, published a short account of the disappearance of Valeri Tarsis, a Russian writer whose "The Bluebird" and "Red and Black" had been issued in Great Britain under the pseudonym of Ivan Valery. "The Bluebird" contained a prophetic bit about a non-conforming Soviet intellectual who was judged to be "very ill" and who was warned that he might be certified "in accordance with a well-known Russian custom." For permitting his manuscripts to be published in England, Tarsis himself was committed to an insane asylum.

Says Floyd, who speaks Russian and has recently been denied a visa to return to Moscow: "Tarsis is the third Russian writer (sic) to be committed to a mental institution for defying the authorities. The others are Mikhail Naritsa, a Leningrad sculptor, and Alexander Volpin-Yesenin."

Mr. Floyd's article, never denied, went generally unremarked on this side of the Atlantic. People here should know about it, lest they nourish illusions that Khrushchev is really to be trusted as a "liberal." Where Stalin was the lion, Khrushchev is the fox. The fox, too, has teeth.

Mr. Hoover Discusses Communist Infiltration

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Probably no man in the government of the United States is more familiar with the infiltration which the Communists are carrying on in this country than J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. When he makes a speech, therefore, on this activity, it may be inferred that something is going on under the surface to which public attention needs to be drawn.

Mr. Hoover, in an address just delivered here in connection with an achievement award given to him by the Brotherhood of the Washington Hebrew Congregation, described the Communist operations inside this country, and said:

"We are at war with Communism and the sooner every red-blooded American realizes this the safer we will be.

"Here in the United States, the cause of international Communism is represented by the Communist Party, USA—a cunning and defiant subversive conspiracy which is financed, directed and controlled by the Kremlin. Its membership consists today of a hard core of revolutionary fanatics who are knowingly and eagerly subservient to the dictates of Moscow. The dupes, the dissidents and the faint of heart have long since been purged from the party's ranks."

Mr. Hoover urged Negro leaders in the United States to beware of the attempts by the Communists to infiltrate the movement for civil rights and warned them that the Soviets have tried and are still trying to take a hand behind the scenes in the civil rights movement. He added:

"Today, the Communists are engaged in a vigorous campaign to divide and weaken America from within. Foremost in this campaign are the party's efforts to exploit misunderstandings and capitalize upon areas of dissension and unrest wherever they exist. This is especially true in the intense civil rights movement, for America's 20 million Negroes and all others engaged in this struggle are a major target for Communist propaganda and subversion."

"It would be absurd to suggest that the aspirations of Negroes for equality are Communist inspired. This is demonstrably not true. But what is demonstrable is that some individuals and groups exploit the tension for purposes not confined to the equality of human rights under the Constitution of the United States. The crusade should not become a vehicle for political radicalism or organized violence."

"Devotion to race must not supersede devotion to established institutions."

"It would be useful if responsible Negro leaders themselves could make it clear to all who follow them that their interest is solely in racial equality

"Legitimate civil rights organizations must remain constantly alert to attempts by the Communists to influence their actions, take over their programs and corrupt their ranks."

Mr. Hoover pointed out that "Communism feeds upon ignorance, prejudice and sickness of the mind and soul," and said that "The cause of Communism is well served by the hatemongers, the lunatic fringe and other rabble who preach a doctrine of malice and intolerance toward their fellow man." He continued:

"These venomous fanatics, whether they are extremists of the

Will President's Soothe-And-Spur Tactics Still Work With Congress?

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON—President Lyndon B. Johnson, the tall Texan now in the saddle, knows how to handle a balky mare: He alternately whispers soothingly in her ear and digs his spurs into her rump.

These are precisely the tactics LBJ is now using on Congress, the ornierest critter in the Washington corral.

Congress has dillydallied, dawdled, dawdled, and delayed until it has caused near chaos in many government agencies.

The appropriations committees still haven't approved most of the funds that the agencies were supposed to receive six months ago to operate. Of the 12 major appropriations bills, only five have been passed.

This has forced the agencies to get along on temporary bills that last only one month and limit spending to the amounts budgeted the previous year.

Such major government departments as State, Justice, Commerce, and Agriculture are still struggling along on this hand-to-mouth basis. They aren't permitted to spend a dime for new projects or activities.

Dozens of new Post Offices, for example, have no scrub-women to wash the floors. The General Services Administration, which is in charge of government housekeeping, has no money to hire more floor washers.

Most of this stalling is deliberate—partly to delay or prevent passage of the civil rights program, partly to force cuts in the budget.

By delaying or denying new appropriations, Congressional curmudgeons hoped to force savings upon the administration. In a sense, they have been holding the appropriations bills as hostages to assure an economy budget next year.

The trouble with this technique is that the government agencies can't plan next year's budget until they get this year's appropriations. Obviously, it is impossible for them to estimate how much they will need until they learn how much they now are supposed to have.

Yet the obstructionists, perhaps out of habit, are continuing to obstruct.

Johnson's Tactics

To get Congress moving again, President Johnson has been singling the leaders out of the herd, basking them into a corner, and alternately soothing and prodding them.

He has invited them to the White House for individual visits, has telephoned them repeatedly. Now pleading, now pressuring, he uses a combination of power and persuasion.

"Doggone it," complained one Senate leader, "I never know what Lyndon is telling the others."

The new President has had experience persuading recalcitrant Senators to do his will. Less than four years ago, he stood at the center of The Establishment. The inner club which exercises an invisible, inexplicable control over the Senate.

He would reward cooperative Senators with choice committee assignments, support for bills, even campaign contributions. Those who didn't go along simply didn't get along.

LBJ would cozy up to a new freshman, wrap an affectionate arm around his shoulder, and talk earnestly about how to get along in the Senate.

He made no threats. But those who ignored his advice found themselves on the outside. They just didn't get along.

There were a few whom Johnson couldn't blandish into obedience. One was Maine's sturdy Senator Ed Muskie, who got a special plea to vote against the anti-filibuster proposal. The biennial assault on the filibuster, that bastion of Southern states rights, is regarded as a disloyal act against The Establishment.

"Of course you can vote any way you like," were LBJ's parting words, but his tone implied differently.

Muskie joined the few who voted to curb the filibuster. Result: He saw the go-along guys get all the choice committee assignments. President Johnson has been out of the Senate for three years, but as of today after five years in the Senate, Muskie has yet to be given a committee he really wants.

Senators with far less seniority have been appointed to the Foreign Relations Committee, his first choice. Meanwhile he remains out in the cold.

Another Cold Shoulder

It took even more courage for Utah Senator Frank Moss to stand up to Johnson, because Johnson had traveled all the way to Utah to campaign for him and had contributed to his narrow victory.

But Moss stuck to his conviction that the filibuster should be restricted. Like Muskie, he has been shut out from the committees he wants. He would desperately like to serve on the Space Committee, since his state has many space projects. But the nearest he has been able to get is the Interior Committee.

In those days, Johnson was doing a job for Southern Senators, of which he was one, and for the clique which controlled the Senate.

Today he is on the other side of the federal fence: he is anxious to push civil rights past the filibuster hurdle. He is also committed to a tax cut, medical care for the elderly, and other Kennedy reforms that are opposed by the power group he once headed.

It will be interesting to see whether his soothe-and-spur techniques will be as effective in subduing as they once were in supporting the establishment. They probably will be.

The solitary question remains: How can we, the people of the United States, protect the lives of our Presidents? Police procedure has always been of interest to me because I come of a family of policemen. I have studied and re-studied it and there is nothing in the manual covering a sneaky sniper. Just nothing.

In Japan, officials told me that, when the emperor leaves the palace grounds, all persons along his route cannot be higher in a building than the ground floor. In the old days, this was a symbolic matter because no Japanese could be permitted to look down upon the emperor. Still, Japanese premiers and foreign ministers have been assassinated, and these are the real heads of government.

Last year in Paris I watched the roughest, most insolent police force in the world club the crowds back from the Champs Elysees before President de Gaulle drove up the boulevard in an open car to place a wreath at the tomb of France's unknown soldier. My hotel was on a side street and I had a small balcony. I'm not a marksman, but the police did not protect de Gaulle from me.

There is a new Hilton Hotel in London which overlooks the grounds of Buckingham Palace. Anyone can rent an upper story room. In St. Peter's in Rome there is a rotunda walk under the Michelangelo dome. All a man needs is a gun and patience. In South America, the roles are often reversed and the presidents assassinate their adversaries.

A week before President John F. Kennedy was killed, I wrote a column about James Rowley, Chief of the Secret Service of the United States. Rowley has about eight thousand gray hairs and each one is a wound stripe. I found him sitting in a parked car on the White House driveway—"just watching."

The agonizing fact is that we cannot protect any statesman from sudden death. The task is impossible. Mr. Lincoln said: "Any man who is willing to trade his life for mine can kill me." He said this on Friday April 14, 1865, while walking with a policeman from the White House to the War Department office, a few doors away. He was shot six hours and 15 minutes later.

No one can blame the Dallas police department for not examining every window along the Kennedy route. The Dallas department had more men on duty that day than ever before. There is no doubt that Dallas did its best, just as there is no doubt that its best was far from good enough.

The number of men on duty does not decrease the odds against assassination. If Dallas had put every uniformed man on the street, and called in the National Guard, the young man in the upper window would have had no trouble resting his arm under his rifle and waiting for the smiling face of our young President to appear in the cross-hairs. They would not have stopped him.

What Dallas lacks is anticipation. It did not anticipate that someone might dislike Adlai Stevenson and spit in his face and hit him over the head with a board. Dallas did not anticipate that a sick Communist who left his family in Fort Worth to take a cheap room in Dallas would be worth checking. It is doubtful that the police even knew it.

The Dallas policeman who rode the motorcycle on the right side of the President's car was still riding casually ahead after Mr. Kennedy had been shot. Patrolman Tippett, who suspected that he had spotted the assassin, did not anticipate that he might kill again, and so his gun was not drawn. Some policeman okayed the presence of Jack Rubenstein in the basement of police headquarters the morning Lee Oswald was to be taken to the county jail.

Everyone present was screened, and nobody was frisked. Captain Fritz of Homicide had spent a lot of time on television telling the world that he had the right man, "a cinch," but unable to relate more than a hatful of circumstantial evidence. The transportation of the prisoner to the county jail was arranged to suit the convenience of television cameramen. And so the Dallas police department was once more caught dead wrong when the shot of the year was enacted while Oswald's two guards were still looking straggled ahead as their prisoner was killed.

Two days later — after three murders — they managed to get Rubenstein to the county jail without anyone being killed. This was their achievement. Throughout, the police procedure was poor; so was the work in Washington. Ranking officers throughout the nation stared at their television sets in dismay when they saw Mrs. Kennedy and the kings and presidents come out of the White House on foot while the Washington police force faced the dignitaries, instead of facing the crowd.

It wasn't until after the mass at St. Matthew's Cathedral that the police faced the curbs. Police work can never be perfect. If it could be, there would be no crime. But, thoughtless, arrogant police procedure is, in itself a crime, punishable by perpetual shame.

Angina Pectoris, Cold Weather Do Not Mix

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Winter weather and angina pectoris do not mix. Victims of this heart condition develop chest pain much sooner when walking on an extremely cold, windy day than at other times. Chilled air causes reflex constriction of the coronary arteries, putting an additional load on the heart.

Anginal pain develops even when the individual is warmly clothed with only the face exposed. Most persons breathe through the mouth when bucking a cold wind, thus losing the air-warming effect of nasal breathing. For this reason, those with coronary artery disease ought to avoid wintry blasts: if they must go out, they should walk slowly and protect the nose and mouth with a scarf or heated mask.

Distress is felt beneath the breastbone in the area covered roughly by the necktie. It varies from mild to severe and tends to dull rather than sharp, stabbing, or knifelike.

Some liken the sensation to a constriction as though there were a band or vice around the chest; others refer to it as a feeling of tightness, pressure, burning, or boring. Occasionally the victim is unable to describe the sensation because it is too vague.

Discomfort is brought on by exertion or excitement and is relieved in less than three minutes by rest or relaxation. Walking after a full meal hastens the attack in much the same way as does the cold. Some notice angina after going less than one block, whereas they are able to walk four blocks when the weather is pleasant or the stomach is empty.

Nitroglycerin brings prompt relief. Studies with a new isotope (rubidium-84) demonstrate that the effect of nitroglycerin on the flow of blood through the coronary arteries is different in normal and in cardiac patients. The flow in normal persons increases 50 to 150 per cent, but in those with angina it is raised 300 to 1,000 per cent.

Possibly, but it is not difficult to find out through X-rays and blood tests. Gout responds to colchicine within a few days whereas this drug has no effect on ordinary arthritis and bursitis. The use of this drug thus helps in making the diagnosis.

Yes, but you may need a substitute sleep inducer temporarily. This varies from an evening walk to a glass of root beer.

Violence And Its Aftermath

Violence breeds violence, and lunacy tends to spread. Word of the assassination of President Kennedy had hardly been flashed about the country until threats of other violent acts were being made in far more than their usual number.

Within a few minutes the governor of Georgia received an anonymous phone call, making veiled threats on his life. An erroneous report of a bomb aboard an airplane carrying Astronaut Scott Carpenter and his wife delayed their flight and caused an exhaustive examination of the plane.

Across the nation in the next several days there were dozens of reports of threatening telephone calls. An anonymous caller told a telephone operator at the Kansas Capitol the building was to be bombed. And so on.

Police officers say every spectacular crime raises the danger of imitation by other persons, who may have hoped for years to do something of the sort and may have been brought to the point of actually committing the act by hearing of another such event.

Sometimes such incidents are regarded as pranks — in very poor taste but harmless examples of macabre humor. This is nonsense. People who make such treats are ill and potentially dangerous. Every effort should be made to find and treat them.

These Days

By John Chamberlain

'Siberia' Is A Mental Hospital

A news item from Moscow says the Soviet Union's leading literary newspaper, Literaturnaya Gazeta, has come out with a warning against heaping "indiscriminate praise" on such poets as Yevgeny Yevtushenko, whose autobiography was recently published in the West. If I were Yevtushenko, I would be shivering in my boots.

My reason for saying this is that when Nikita Khrushchev gets genuinely annoyed, he has a way of getting rid of opposing voices without seriously damaging his reputation in Western Europe and the United States for being "liberal" in comparison to Stalin. The offending artists sink without trace — and no great hullabaloo is raised anywhere.

The Khrushchev "image" of liberality toward his intellectuals was in danger a year ago when there was a short-lived campaign against "deviators" from the party line in art. Khrushchev had visited an art gallery, where he looked at some avant garde stuff and reacted as any peasant from the Ukraine might have reacted. The Khrushchev snorts, some of which were fairly obscene, touched off a spirited party attack on Yevtushenko and other poets and writers for giving way to decadent influences from the West. But Khrushchev failed to sustain the campaign against his uneasy intellectuals, and his zealous mouthpieces in the Soviet press fell silent.

Taking advantage of the lull, Yevtushenko and Andrei Voznesensky, among other mild dissidents from the "party line" in art, have begun to publish their poems again in Soviet magazines. The appearance of these poems is what has caused the editor of Literaturnaya Gazeta to prick up his ears. He has warned the young dissidents that the "constructive" approach to criticism, as established by Khrushchev in the changeover from Stalin's terroristic censorship, should not be construed as an invitation to ideological license.

The relatively polite terms in which the present warfare between the party-liners and the dissidents in Soviet letters is being conducted should not fool anybody. For the penalty in Soviet Russia, if Khrushchev takes serious exception to a writer's opinions, is a banishment as cruel as anything that happened in Stalin's time. The only thing that has changed is the verbiage used to cover the punishment. Khrushchev has heard about George Orwell's obfuscating "newspeak," and that is all.

Time was when Stalin, if he disliked a writer, would simply ship him to Siberia to wear himself out in slave labor in an Arctic gold camp.

To Khrushchev, this sort of thing is a trifle unsophisticated. The Khrushchev method of getting rid of an unwanted dissident voice is to call in the psychiatrists, get a verdict of "mental disturbance," and then permit the "doctors" to commit the poor writer to a "hospital." That this could be worse than Siberia to a free spirit is obvious.

Not so long ago, in the London Sunday Telegraph, David Floyd, a journalist and editor who spent several years as a counselor in the British Embassy in Moscow, published a short account of the disappearance of Valeri Tarsis, a Russian writer whose "The Bluebottle" and "Red and Black" had been issued in Great Britain under the pseudonym of Ivan Valery. "The Bluebottle" contained a prophetic bit about a non-conforming Soviet intellectual who was judged to be "very ill" and who was warned that he might be certified "in accordance with a well-known Russian custom." For permitting his manuscripts to be published in England, Tarsis himself was committed to an insane asylum.

The agonizing fact is that we cannot protect any statesman from sudden death. The task is impossible. Mr. Lincoln said: "Any man who is willing to trade his life for mine can kill me." He said this on Friday April 14th, 1865, while walking with a policeman from the White House to the War Department office, a few doors away. He was shot six hours and 15 minutes later.

No one can blame the Dallas police department for not examining every window along the Kennedy route. The Dallas department had more men on duty that day than ever before. There is no doubt that Dallas did its best, just as there is no doubt that its best was far from good enough.

The number of men on duty does not decrease the odds against assassination. If Dallas had put every uniformed man on the street, and called in the National Guard, the young man in the upper window would have had no trouble resting his arm under his rifle and waiting for the smiling face of our young President to appear in the cross-hairs. They would not have stopped him.

What Dallas lacks is anticipation. It did not anticipate that someone might dislike Adlai Stevenson and spit in his face and hit him over the head with a board. Dallas did not anticipate that a sick Communist who left his family in Fort Worth to take a cheap room in Dallas would be worth checking. It is doubtful that the police even knew it.

The Dallas policeman who rode the motorcycle on the right side of the President's car was still riding casually ahead after Mr. Kennedy had been shot. Patrolman Tippet, who suspected that he had spotted the assassin, did not anticipate that he might kill again, and so his gun was not drawn. Some policemen okayed the presence of Jack Rubenstein in the basement of police headquarters the morning Lee Oswald was to be taken to the county jail.

Everyone present was screened, and nobody was frisked. Captain Fritz of Homicide had spent a lot of time on television telling the world that he had the right man, "a cinch," but unable to relate more than a half of circumstantial evidence. The transportation of the prisoner to the county jail was arranged to suit the convenience of television cameramen. And so the Dallas police department was once more caught dead wrong when the shot of the year was enacted while Oswald's two guards were still looking straight ahead as their prisoner was killed.

Two days later — after three murders — they managed to get Rubenstein to the county jail without anyone being killed. This was their achievement. Throughout, the police procedure was poor; so was the work in Washington. Ranking officers throughout the nation stared at their television sets in dismay when they saw Mrs. Kennedy and the kings and presidents come out of the White House on foot while the Washington police force faced the dignitaries, instead of facing the crowd.

It wasn't until after the mass at St. Matthew's Cathedral that the police faced the curbs. Police work can never be perfect. If it could be, there would be no crime. But thoughtless, arrogant police procedure is, in itself a crime, punishable by perpetual shame.

News From Inside The Statehouse

By DONALD F. FANNIN
CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The Board of Public Works receives Monday State Finance Commissioner Truman Gore's recommended state budget for 1964-65.

The board will open three days of hearings on budget proposals including appearances by West Virginia University, the State Educational Broadcasting Authority, Air Pollution Control Commission and departments of health, tax, mental health and commerce Monday.

It plans to conclude the hearings Wednesday and spend the rest of the week putting the budget in the form it will submit to the Legislature in January.

Budget requests submitted to Gore by various departments and agencies totaled more than $180 million. But Gore estimated earlier that general revenue fund receipts for 1964-65 probably would total about $154 million — meaning substantial cuts would have to be made in requests.

The $154 million is a little more than $2 million over current estimates of general revenue receipts for the current year.

Gore's advisory committee — activated for the first time this year — has indicated the state hold the line on new expenses as much as possible for 1964-65, particularly in personal services.

One of the biggest problems under consideration has been the needs of the State Welfare Department. The department seeks a $5.48 million increase in its budget with much of the money needed to meet new federal requirements, all of which will be in effect as of next July 1.

And a $2 million deficiency appropriation is sought to cover certain expenses from January through June, mainly for the Medical Care to the Aged (MAA) program.

Giving the welfare department all or a substantial part of its request would closely limit the amount of money available for increased funds to other agencies.

The Legislature's two main interim committees will meet Tuesday and Wednesday, continuing studies of welfare, medical care for the aged, roads, education, banking laws and other matters.

A subgroup plans another public hearing this week on proposed revision of the state's water pollution laws.

The departments of health and welfare are to present a joint report to the welfare committee Tuesday on a proposed pilot program to determine the feasibility of expanded home care services for welfare clients.

Health Director N. H. Dyer made the original proposal last month and said it could save the state from $600,000 to more than $1 million annually in reduced payments for hospital care.

The State Board of Education also will meet Tuesday and Wednesday to discuss budgets and building plans at various colleges.

College and university presidents and board members also are to appear before the BPW on behalf of their budget requests Tuesday.

Title-Seeking Bears Top 49ers, 27-7; Giants Batter Redskins, 44-14

Chicago Within Game Of NFL's Western Crown

Galimore Races
51 Yards For TD
On Opening Play

CHICAGO (AP)—Willie Galimore's 51-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage spurred the Chicago Bears to a 27-7 victory over San Francisco Sunday and moved them within one game of the National Football League's Western Division crown.

A victory or even a tie against Detroit next Sunday would give the Bears their first divisional title since 1956. However, a defeat at the hands of Detroit, coupled with a Green Bay triumph over San Francisco Saturday, would send the Packers into the championship game.

Galimore's opening jaunt and a 21-yard touchdown run by Joe Marconi gave the Bears a 14-0 lead in the first quarter and set up the possibility of a rout.

Pyle Has Troubles

But Bear center Mike Pyle had a troubled afternoon. Four bad snafus, two on punts and two on field goal attempts, made the Bears turn the ball over to San Francisco on downs. But only once did the 49ers capitalize.

That was in the second quarter when San Francisco took over on the Bear 26 after a bad snap. J. D. Smith scored from the three after he and Don Lisbon took turns running the ball to set up the score.

Holding a precarious 14-7 lead at the start of the second half, the Bears wasted no time boosting their lead to 21-7. Billy Martin took the kickoff and returned to the 29. A penalty helps the Bears move to the 41 before quarterback Billy Wade completed a 41-yard pass to Bo Farrington down to the 49er 15.

Takes Seven Plays

From there it took the Bears seven plays to score, with Wade running around right end for the touchdown.

With less than three minutes to play, the Bears scored again when Roosevelt Taylor intercepted a Lamar McHan pass and returned 30 yards for a touchdown.

It was one of four interceptions by the alert Bear defense, which bottled up the 49ers so effectively in the second half that San Francisco couldn't muster a serious scoring threat until the final minute. That was cut off by an interception.

Chicago 27, San Francisco 7.
Scoring: Chi—Galimore 51 run (Jencks kick); Chi—Marconi 19 run (Jencks kick); SF—Smith 3 run (Davis kick); Chi—Wade 3 run (Jencks kick); Chi—Taylor 30 returned intercepted pass (kick blocked).
Attendance: 46,994.

Bobcats Capture Opener, Meet PSC Tomorrow

With three games looming on this week's schedule, Frostburg State College successfully opened its 1963-64 cage campaign Saturday night with a 68-61 victory over Wheeling College at Compton Hall on the FSC campus.

Coach Ron Van Ryswyk's Bobcats play long-time rival Potomac State tomorrow at Keyser, then head for the Baltimore area on the weekend. They'll meet Towson on Friday and Bowie the following night.

Returning regular guard Bill Wiltson sparked the Bobcats from behind in the second half after the Cardinals assumed a 34-31 advantage in the first 20 minutes.

Wiltson wound up with 20 points on nine field goals and 10 free throws in 12 attempts. Quincy Crawford added 13 points to the FSC attack, and Jim Evans and Charlie Robinson each had 11. "Corky" Korth paced the West Virginians with 21.

Frostburg's wrestling team also emerged victorious in a match staged as a preliminary attraction to the basketball game. Coach Bill Marley's grapplers defeating Fairmont State, 17-13, in their home debut.

The Bobcats won five of the eight individual tests. Lenn Wayman pinned his opponents, and decisions were captured by Dennis Knott, Joe Creitz, Jeff Jewell and George Bamford.

A KISS FOR THE CHAMPION — Joey Giardello, newly crowned middleweight champion, received a kiss from his wife, Rosalie, Sunday after he held a press conference announcing that Dick Tiger of Nigeria, whom he defeated for the title Saturday night at Atlantic City, would be given the first shot at the crown. Giardello, holding a trophy he was given upon becoming champion, also said he would return to his Cherry Hill, N.J., home to spend a few weeks with his family. He then will appear in a couple of non-title bouts before meeting Tiger again, probably next summer. (AP Photofax)

Cards Swamp Eagles, 38-14

Charlie Johnson
Fires 4 TD Passes

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Charlie Johnson threw touchdown passes of 78, 58, 43, and 17 yards as St. Louis swamped Philadelphia 38-14 Sunday in a National Football League game, but the Cardinals' title hopes disappeared anyway.

The other Cardinal touchdown came on a 42-yard sprint by safety Larry Wilson with a recovered fumble.

Philadelphia quarterback Sonny Jurgensen, troubled most of the day by the Cardinal front line, got away long enough to set up short scoring runs by Tim Brown.

Johnson's four scoring tosses gave him 26 for the season. He hit on 14 of 29 passes for 315 yards despite a strong wind which intermittently whipped blinding snow flurries over the field.

Johnson's favorite receiver as usual, was Bobby Joe Conrad, who upped his league-leading reception total to 65 to break a Cardinal single season record. He caught six for 122 yards and two touchdowns.

Patriots Near Eastern Title

Top Oilers, 46-28,
Take Game Lead

HOUSTON (AP)—The Boston Patriots, backing Babe Parilli and Tom Yewcic with a rugged pass defense, got three touchdowns in a weird second period Sunday for an 46-28 victory over the Houston Oilers and moved close to the Eastern Division championship of the American Football League.

The victory broke a 6-5 deadlock between the two teams and sent the Patriots into their final game next Sunday at Kansas City with a one game lead.

A tie or victory at Kansas City would put the Patriots in the AFL championship game and eliminate Houston from the title game for the first time since the league was formed in 1960.

George Blanda completed 12 consecutive passes in pacing Houston to a 14-10 lead early in the first half, but the Boston defense then threw Blanda and understudy Jackie Lee for losses totaling 100 yards while trying to pass.

The Oilers lost the ball three times on fumbles and twice on pass interceptions in the disastrous second quarter when Boston scored 21 points.

Chiefs Blast Denver, 52-21

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Kansas City's defensive team scored one touchdown and set up three others with blocked punts and interceptions as the Chiefs blasted Denver 52-21 Sunday for their first American Football League victory in two months.

Len Dawson fired three touchdown passes for Kansas City, two to flanker Frank Jackson, and Jackson got a third touchdown on a 22-yard reverse.

The game was played in freezing weather with light snow flurries and wind gusts up to 62 miles an hour. Gene Mingo of Denver kicked a 44-yard field goal into the teeth of the gale, and a 50-yarder with the wind.

It was Kansas City's first AFL victory since the Chiefs beat Houston here 28-7 on Oct. 6. The Chiefs' only other victory was 59-7 at Denver on opening night.

Navy And Air Force Gain Bowl Invitations By Narrow Margins

Pitt Fails To Get
Bid Despite Win
Over Penn State

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

By the margin of about two yards and a couple of seconds, Navy won its fifth straight football game over Army 21-15 and was invited to the Cotton Bowl to meet top-ranked Texas.

By the margin of a last quarter touchdown, Air Force scratched past Colorado 17-14 and was invited to the Gator Bowl to meet North Carolina. By the margin of the place kick following a last quarter touchdown, No. 4 Pitt downed Penn State 22-21 and wasn't invited anywhere.

In other action Saturday in the delayed windup of the college football season, New Mexico won its second straight Western Athletic Conference title with a 22-15 victory over Arizona. Prairie View of Texas defeated Kearney State 20-7 in the NAIA playoff for a trip to the Camellia Bowl.

Rice defeated Texas Christian 33-7 and clinched third in the Southwest Conference. The victory made Rice Coach Jess Neely the winner of the most games in conference history, 137 in 24 years.

The minor bowl season moved along as Northeastern Oklahoma got 38 points in the last quarter Saturday to smother Slippery Rock—the darlings of a quaint name cult of football fans—59-12 in the All-Sports Bowl at Oklahoma City.

Baylor beat Southern Methodist 20-6 as quarterback Don Trull established a flock of passing records and receiver Lawrence Elkins set others.

Wyoming trimmed Texas Western 7-6 and Tulsa topped Louisville 22-6 in other games. All the big bowl spots were filled, and there wasn't a place left over for Pitt, loser only to Navy this season and one of the most powerful and colorful Panther teams in decades.

There are a couple of games left on the football schedule which was mixed up by postponements and cancellations following the death of President Kennedy. Miami meets Alabama and Louisville plays Houston next Saturday.

The final pool of the season is being taken now, with Texas and Navy almost certain to finish 1-2, in either order. Navy barely escaped against Army as the Cadets stormed back from a 21-7 deficit to score once and had a fourth down on the two when the clock ran out. Millions watched on television as Army tried to get the clock stopped until there was enough quiet to hear the signals.

The Air Force-Colorado game

was marked by fist fights as the Falcons battled back from behind twice. Two players from each team were ousted for fighting. Terry Isaacson led the Falcons to the winning touchdown with an 80-yard drive, during which he completed four key passes.

Fred Mazurek sprinted 17 yards on a zigzag course through Penn State for the final touchdown for Pitt at 2:35 of the last quarter. Rick Leeson added the winning place kick.

This was the major bowl lineup: Rose—Illinois, 7-1-1, vs. Washington, 6-4.

Orange — Nebraska, 9-1, vs. Auburn, 9-1.

Cotton—Texas, 10-0, vs. Navy, 9-1.

Sugar—Mississippi, 7-0-2, vs. Alabama, 7-2.

Sun—Southern Methodist, 4-6, vs. Oregon, 7-3.

Gator—North Carolina, 8-2 & vs. Air Force, 7-3, Dec. 28.

Bluebonnet—LSU, 7-3, vs. Baylor, 7-3, Dec. 21.

Liberty—North Carolina State, 8-2, vs. Mississippi State, 6-2-2.

Gilchrist Sets Two AFL Records As Buffalo Wins

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Cookie Gilchrist rattled the New York Jets line Sunday for 243 yards and scored five touchdowns for American Football League records as the Buffalo Bills crushed the Jets 45-14.

Gilchrist, the AFL's most valuable player last year and unable to break away consistently this season until this game, set three league and four team records and equalled three league marks.

His 243 yards surpassed the 216 by Houston's Billy Cannon in a game against New York. Abner Haynes, playing for Dallas in 1961 against Oakland, had scored four touchdowns rushing.

Buffalo virtually crippled New York's attack on the first play after the opening kickoff. Sid Youngelman chased quarterback Dick Wood from his 21 to the four, where Wood went down and stretched the muscles in his left leg.

The signal-calling duties were turned over to Galen Hall, who tossed a 23-yard fourth period touchdown pass to Don Maynard. Hall could engineer only 38 yards rushing for the Jets.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI) — Jeff Mullins, Duke's All-America candidate, was named Sunday as the most outstanding player in the West Virginia Centennial Classic Basketball tournament.

Tenth Victory Gives New York Eastern Lead

Showdown Game
With Pittsburgh
Set Next Sunday

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants took over sole possession of first place in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League Sunday by smothering the Washington Redskins 44-14, and set up a showdown game with the Pittsburgh Steelers next Sunday for the title.

The Giants now are 10-3. The Steelers, who pulled out a tight one at Dallas, are 7-3-3. A victory or a tie next week would give the Giants the title. A Pittsburgh victory would make the Steelers the champs.

The Cleveland Browns and St. Louis Cardinals are eliminated. The Giants and Redskins tied an NFL record with 11 interceptions, seven by the Giants.

Snead Manhandled
Andy Robustelli and his defensive mates manhandled quarterback Norm Snead of the Redskins and scored or set up all the points in a 23-7 halftime lead.

Y. A. Tittle did not have a big day passing, but he tied the NFL season record of 33 TD passes he set last year. The bald veteran hit Frank Gifford with an eighty-yard pass in the second period and connected with Joe Morrison on a 57-yard scoring play in the third period.

Dick Lynch set an NFL record with his third TD on an intercepted pass when he raced 42 yards after picking off Snead's pass in the second period.

Jim Katcavage, alert defensive end, got his first score when he picked up a fumble and rambled 10 yards after Robustelli had shaken the ball loose from Snead in the second period. Sam Huff joined the parade when the middle linebacker intercepted a George Izo pass and ran 36 yards for a touchdown in the third period.

Rookie Takes Over
Rookie Glenn Griffing took over for Tittle in the final period and connected with Gifford on a 28-yard scoring pass.

Washington scored first and last on a four-yard run by Tom Tracy and a 56-yard pass from George Izo to Bobby Mitchell.

New York 44, Washington 14.

Unitas Has Big Afternoon, Colts Whip Vikings, 41-10

Johnny Completes
17 Of 21 Passes,
Three For TDs

BALTIMORE (AP) — Quarterback John Unitas hurled a damp football at a rate approaching the best in his eight-year career and the Baltimore Colts slaughtered the Minnesota Vikings 41-10 Sunday.

The 30-year-old Unitas failed to connect only four times on 21 passes, three of them going for touchdowns, in driving Baltimore to a 34-10 lead at the end of the third quarter of the National Football League game.

Unitas turned the last quarter over to rookie Gary Cuozzo after coming within eight completions of his peak total of 25. The 344 yards gained by Unitas were only 53 shy of his best single game mark, and pushed him to an all-time personal season high of 3,158 yards with one game to go.

It was the highest scoring output of the season for the Colts, who got on the winning side of the record with 7-6 for the first time in Don Shula's debut as head coach. The loss lowered Minnesota's slate to 4-8-1.

Rookie end John Mackey carried two Unitas passes for touchdowns, 61 and 27 yards. Both times, Mackey bowled over three would-be tacklers on his way to the goal.

Mackey caught a total of five Unitas passes while veteran end Raymond Berry gathered in eight, one for a 24-yard touchdown.

Lenny Lyles intercepted a pass by quarterback Fran Tarkenton of the Vikings and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown. Tom Matte scored another after Alex Hawkins returned a punt 50 yards.

Jim Martin chipped in with two field goals to run his season's total to 22 to complete the Colt scoring.

Jim Boylan, a rookie free agent end from Washington State, scored the only Minnesota touchdown on an 18-yard pass from Tarkenton just before the end of the first half when the rain started to fall heavily. Another 19-yard pass reception by Boylan set up Minnesota's other three points, a 36-yard field goal by Fred Cox in the third quarter.

Returning regular guard Bill Wiltson sparked the Bobcats from behind in the second half after the Cardinals assumed a 34-31 advantage in the first 20 minutes.

Wiltson wound up with 20 points on nine field goals and 10 free throws in 12 attempts. Quincy Crawford added 13 points to the FSC attack, and Jim Evans and Charlie Robinson each had 11. "Corky" Korth paced the West Virginians with 21.

Frostburg's wrestling team also emerged victorious in a match staged as a preliminary attraction to the basketball game. Coach Bill Marley's grapplers defeating Fairmont State, 17-13, in their home debut.

The Bobcats won five of the eight individual tests. Lenn Wayman pinned his opponents, and decisions were captured by Dennis Knott, Joe Creitz, Jeff Jewell and George Bamford.

A KISS FOR THE CHAMPION—Joey Giardello, newly crowned middleweight champion, received a kiss from his wife, Rosalie, Sunday after he held a press conference announcing that Dick Tiger of Nigeria, whom he defeated for the title Saturday night at Atlantic City, would be given the first shot at the crown. Giardello, holding a trophy he was given upon becoming champion, also said he would return to his Cherry Hill, N.J., home to spend a few weeks with his family. He then will appear in a couple of non-title bouts before meeting Tiger again, probably next summer. (AP Photofax)

Cards Swamp Eagles, 38-14

Charlie Johnson
Fires 4 TD Passes

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Charlie Johnson threw touchdown passes of 78, 58, 43, and 17 yards as St. Louis swamped Philadelphia 38-14 Sunday in a National Football League game, but the Cardinals' title hopes disappeared anyway.

The other Cardinal touchdown came on a 42-yard sprint by safety Larry Wilson with a recovered fumble.

Philadelphia quarterback Sonny Jurgenson, troubled most of the day by the Cardinal front line, got away long enough to set up short scoring runs by Tim Brown.

Johnson's four scoring tosses gave him 26 for the season. He hit on 14 of 29 passes for 315 yards despite a strong wind which intermittently whipped blinding snow flurries over the field.

Johnson's favorite receiver as usual, was Bobby Joe Conrad, who upped his league-leading reception total to 65 to break a Cardinal single season record. He caught six for 122 yards and two touchdowns.

Patriots Near Eastern Title

Top Oilers, 46-28,
Take Game Lead

HOUSTON (AP)—The Boston Patriots, backing Babe Parilli and Tom Yewcic with a rugged pass defense, got three touchdowns in a weird second period Sunday for an 46-28 victory over the Houston Oilers and moved close to the Eastern Division championship of the American Football League.

The victory broke a 6-5 deadlock between the two teams and sent the Patriots into their final game next Sunday at Kansas City with a one game lead.

A tie or victory at Kansas City would put the Patriots in the AFL championship game and eliminate Houston from the title game for the first time since the league was formed in 1960.

George Blanda completed 12 consecutive passes in pacing Houston to a 14-10 lead early in the first half, but the Boston defense then threw Blanda and understudy Jackie Lee for losses totaling 100 yards while trying to pass.

The Oilers lost the ball three times on fumbles and twice on pass interceptions in the disastrous second quarter when Boston scored 21 points.

Chiefs Blast Denver, 52-21

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Kansas City's defensive team scored one touchdown and set up three others with blocked punts and interceptions as the Chiefs blasted Denver 52-21 Sunday for their first American Football League victory in two months.

Len Dawson fired three touchdown passes for Kansas City, two to flanker Frank Jackson, and Jackson got a third touchdown on a 22-yard reverse.

The game was played in freezing weather with light snow flurries and wind gusts up to 62 miles an hour. Gene Mingo of Denver kicked a 44-yard field goal into the teeth of the gale and a 50-yarder with the wind.

It was Kansas City's first AFL victory since the Chiefs beat Houston here 28-0 Oct. 6. The Chiefs' only other victory was 59-7 at Denver on opening night.

Navy And Air Force Gain Bowl Invitations By Narrow Margins

Pitt Fails To Get
Bid Despite Win
Over Penn State

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

By the margin of about two yards and a couple of seconds, Navy won its fifth straight football game over Army 21-15 and was invited to the Cotton Bowl to meet top-ranked Texas.

By the margin of a last quarter touchdown, Air Force scratched past Colorado 17-14 and was invited to the Gator Bowl to meet North Carolina.

By the margin of the place kick following a last quarter touchdown, No. 4 Pitt downed Penn State 22-21 and wasn't invited anywhere.

In other action Saturday in the delayed windup of the college football season, New Mexico won its second straight Western Athletic Conference title with a 22-15 victory over Arizona. Prairie View of Texas defeated Kearney State 20-7 in the NAIA playoff for a trip to the Camellia Bowl.

Rice defeated Texas Christian 33-7 and clinched third in the Southwest Conference. The victory made Rice Coach Jess Neely the winner of the most games in conference history, 137 in 24 years.

The minor bowl season moved along as Northeastern Oklahoma got 38 points in the last quarter Saturday to smother Slippery Rock—the darlings of a quaint name cult of football fans—59-12 in the All-Sports Bowl at Oklahoma City.

Baylor beat Southern Methodist 20-6 as quarterback Don Trull established a flock of passing records and receiver Lawrence Elkins set others.

Wyoming trimmed Texas Western 7-6 and Tulsa topped Louisville 22-6 in other games. All the big bowl spots were filled, and there wasn't a place left over for Pitt, loser only to Navy this season and one of the most powerful and colorful Panther teams in decades.

There are a couple of games left on the football schedule which was mixed up by postponements and cancellations after the death of President Kennedy. Miami meets Alabama and Louisville plays Houston next Saturday.

The final poll of the season is being taken now, with Texas and Navy almost certain to finish 1-2, in either order.

Navy barely escaped against Army as the Cadets stormed back from a 21-7 deficit to score once and had a fourth down on the two when the clock ran out. Millions watched on television as Army tried to get the clock stopped until there was enough quiet to hear the signals.

The Air Force-Colorado game

was marked by fist fights as the Falcons battled back from behind twice. Two players from each team were ousted for fighting. Terry Isaacson led the Falcons to the winning touchdown with an 80-yard drive, during which he completed four key passes.

Fred Mazurek sprinted 17 yards on a zigzag course through Penn State for the final touchdown for Pitt at 2:33 of the last quarter. Rick Leeson added the winning place kick.

This was the major bowl lineup:

Rose—Illinois, 7-1, vs. Washington, 6-4.

Orange—Nebraska, 9-1, vs. Auburn, 9-1.

Cotton—Texas, 10-0, vs. Navy, 9-1.

Sugar—Mississippi, 7-0-2, vs. Alabama, 7-2.

Sun—Southern Methodist, 4-6, vs. Oregon, 7-3.

Gator—North Carolina, 8-2 & vs. Air Force, 7-3, Dec. 28.

Bluebonnet—LSU, 7-3, vs. Baylor, 7-3, Dec. 21.

Liberty—North Carolina State, 8-2, vs. Mississippi State, 6-2-2.

Gilchrist Sets Two AFL Records As Buffalo Wins

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Cookie Gilchrist riddled the New York Jets line Sunday for 243 yards and scored five touchdowns for American Football League records as the Buffalo Bills crushed the Jets 45-14.

Gilchrist, the AFL's most valuable player last year and unable to break away consistently this season until this game, set three league and four team records and equalled three league marks.

His 243 yards surpassed the 216 by Houston's Billy Cannon in a game against New York Abner Haynes, playing for Dallas in 1961 against Oakland, had scored four touchdowns rushing.

Buffalo virtually crippled New York's attack on the first play after the opening kickoff. Sid Youngelman chased quarterback Dick Wood from his 21 to the four, where Wood went down and stretched the muscles in his left leg.

The signal-calling duties were turned over to Galen Hall, who tossed a 23-yard fourth period touchdown pass to Don Maynard. Hall could engineer only 38 yards rushing for the Jets.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—Jeff Mullins, Duke's All-America candidate, was named Sunday as the most outstanding player in the West Virginia Centennial Classic Basketball tournament.

Tenth Victory Gives New York Eastern Lead

Showdown Game
With Pittsburgh
Set Next Sunday

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants took over sole possession of first place in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League Sunday by smothering the Washington Redskins 44-14, and set up a showdown game with the Pittsburgh Steelers next Sunday for the title.

The Giants now are 10-3. The Steelers, who pulled out a tight one at Dallas, are 7-3-3. A victory or a tie next week would give the Giants the title. A Pittsburgh victory would make the Steelers the champs.

The Cleveland Browns and St. Louis Cardinals are eliminated. The Giants and Redskins tied an NFL record with 11 interceptions, seven by the Giants.

Snead Manhandled

Andy Robustelli and his defensive mates manhandled quarterback Norm Snead of the Redskins and scored or set up all the points in a 23-7 halftime lead.

Y. A. Tittle did not have a big day passing, but he tied the NFL season record of 33 TD passes he set last year. The bald veteran hit Frank Gifford with an eight-yard pass in the second period and connected with Joe Morrison on a 57-yard scoring play in the third period.

Dick Lynch set an NFL record with his third TD on an intercepted pass when he raced 42 yards after picking off Snead's pass in the second period.

Jim Katcavage, alert defensive end, got his first score when he picked up a fumble and rambled 10 yards after Robustelli had shaken the ball loose from Snead in the second period. Sam Huff joined the parade when the middle linebacker intercepted a George Izo pass and ran 36 yards for a touchdown in the third period.

Rookie Takes Over
Rookie Lynn Griffing took over for Tittle in the final period and connected with Gifford on a 28-yard scoring pass.

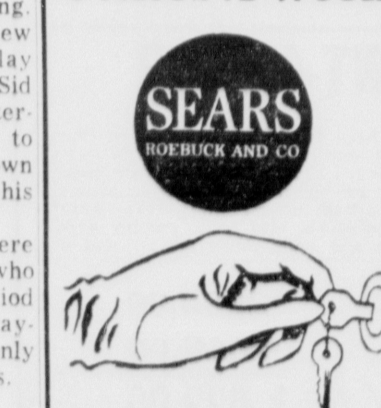

Washington scored first and last on a four-yard run by Tom Tracy and a 56-yard pass from George Izo to Bobby Mitchell.

Unitas Has Big Afternoon, Colts Whip Vikings, 41-10

Johnny Completes
17 Of 21 Passes,
Three For TDs

BALTIMORE (AP)—Quarterback John Unitas hurled a damp football at a rate approaching the best in his eight-year career and the Baltimore Colts slaughtered the Minnesota Vikings 41-10 Sunday.

The 30-year-old Unitas failed to connect only four times on 21 passes, three of them going for touchdowns, in driving Baltimore to a 34-10 lead at the end of the third quarter of the National Football League game.

Unitas turned the last quarter over to rookie Gary Cuozzo after coming within eight completions of his peak total of 25. The 344 yards gained by Unitas were only 53 shy of his best single game mark, and pushed him to an all-time personal season high of 3,158 yards with one game to go.

It was the highest scoring output of the season for the Colts, who got on the winning side of the record with 7-6 for the first time in Don Shula's debut as head coach. The loss lowered Minnesota's slate to 4-8-1.

Rookie end John Mackey carried two Unitas passes for touchdowns, 61 and 27 yards. Both times, Mackey bowled over three would-be tacklers on his way to the goal.

Mackey caught a total of five Unitas passes while veteran end Raymond Berry gathered in eight, one for a 24-yard touchdown.

Lenny Lyles intercepted a pass by quarterback Fran Tarkenton of the Vikings and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown. Tom Matte scored another after Alex Hawkins returned a punt 50 yards.

Jim Martin chipped in with two field goals to run his season's total to 22 to complete the Colt scoring.

Jim Boylan, a rookie free agent end from Washington State, scored the only Minnesota touchdown on an 18-yard pass from Tarkenton just before the end of the first half when the rain started to fall heavily. Another 19-yard pass reception by Boylan set up Minnesota's other three points, a 36-yard field goal by Fred Cox in the third quarter.

Raiders Win To Keep AFL Hopes Alive

San Diego Misses Title Cinch, 41-27

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Oakland overcame a 17-point San Diego lead in the fourth period Sunday to whip the Chargers 41-27 and keep them from cinching the American Football League's Western Division title.

Two fumbles, a bad punt, a personal foul penalty, and an interception return each gave the Raiders possession of the ball in San Diego territory in the final 15 minutes.

Each time they scored.

A 41-yard touchdown pass from Cotton Davidson to Art Powell with the score tied 27-27 and 5:33 to play climaxed the comeback victory. Davidson, on the bench in the first half, passed for two touchdowns and scored one in the surge.

The Raiders, 8-4, moved within one game of the Chargers in the division chase. Each has two games to play.

Hunters Slay 599 Deer In Allegany County

Garrett 3-Day Total 479; Illegal Kills 50 In Region No. 1

A total of 599 bucks were bagged by gunners during the first three days of the nine-day season in Allegany county, according to reports received from the checking stations by Joseph A. Minke, regional game warden. Hunters killed 479 deer in Garrett county and 290 in Washington county to make the Region No. 1 total 1,368.

The illegal kills reported in the three counties thus far total 50. Twenty-eight of these were located in Allegany county, 12 in Garrett county and ten in Washington county.

About ten per cent of the violators are usually apprehended but this year the percentage is much greater in favor of the game wardens. Approximately 18 persons have been charged with illegal kills, plus 22 persons who were rounded up for improper licenses and for failing to purchase a deer stamp.

Throughout the Green Ridge State Forest trailers and camps have been set up and the forest and parks personnel along with the game wardens were kept busy. Wardens were kept on duty 18 to 20 hours during the first three days and a number of persons were apprehended for spotlighting with firearms in possession.

Many of the visiting hunters expressed amazement that any of the deer

Raiders Win To Keep AFL Hopes Alive

San Diego Misses Title Cinch, 41-27

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Oakland overcame a 17-point San Diego lead in the fourth period Sunday to whip the Chargers 41-27 and keep them from clinching the American Football League's Western Division title.

Two fumbles, a bad punt, a personal foul penalty, and an interception return each gave the Raiders possession of the ball in San Diego territory in the final 15 minutes.

Each time they scored. A 41-yard touchdown pass from Cotton Davidson to Art Powell with the score tied 27-27 and 5:33 to play climaxed the comeback victory. Davidson, on the bench in the first half, passed for two touchdowns and scored one in the surge.

The Raiders, 8-4, moved within one game of the Chargers in the division chase. Each has two games to play.

Steelers Win, Keep Title Hopes Alive

Top Cowboys, 24-19, Play New York Next

DALLAS (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers scored with two minutes left Sunday and beat the Dallas Cowboys 24-19 to set up a winner-take-all game next week with the New York Giants for the Eastern Division title of the National Football League.

Theron Sapp scooted 24 yards to a touchdown for the Steelers to pull out the victory.

Two Are Eliminated

The decision gave the Steelers a 7-3-3 record on the year. The Giants defeated Washington for a 10-3 record. Cleveland and St. Louis are tied for second with 9-4, and eliminated.

The regular season game at New York next Sunday will decide the winner. If the Giants win or tie they will get the title. If the Steelers win they will take it all.

Into the final minutes of the game here it looked like it was all over for the Steelers. The Cowboys led 19-17 on 53 and 46-yard field goals by Sam Baker and a couple of touchdown runs by quarterback Don Meredith.

The Steelers started on their 20 and soon had a fourth down on their 16. Ed Brown, in punt formation, faked a kick and threw a pass to Red Mack for 42 yards.

The Steelers went from there for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers led 17-9 going into the second half, but the Cowboys went in front on Baker's second field goal and a touchdown set up by Meredith's 42-yard pass to Pettis Norman.

Pittsburgh's first two touchdowns came on passes from Brown to Buddy Dail for 55 yards and Preston Carpenter for 28.

Hunters Slay 599 Deer In Allegany County

Garrett 3-Day Total 479; Illegal Kills 50 In Region No. 1

A total of 599 bucks were bagged by gunners during the first three days of the nine-day season in Allegany county, according to reports received from the checking stations by Joseph A. Minker, regional game warden. Hunters killed 479 deer in Garrett county and 290 in Washington county to make the Region No. 1 total 1,368.

The illegal kills reported in the three counties this far total 50. Twenty-eight of these were located in Allegany county, 12 in Garrett county and ten in Washington county.

About ten per cent of the violators are usually apprehended but this year the percentage is much greater in favor of the game wardens. Approximately 18 persons have been charged with illegal kills, plus 22 persons who were rounded up for improper licenses and for failing to purchase a deer stamp.

Throughout the Green Ridge State Forest trailers and camps have been set up and the forest and parks personnel along with the game wardens were kept busy. Wardens were kept on duty 18 to 20 hours during the first three days and a number of persons were apprehended for spotlighting with firearms in possession.

Many of the visiting hunters expressed amazement that any of the deer can survive the army of hunters but for every deer hit a dozen others are missed.

Ralph Biley, state biologist for the Game and Inland Fish Commission, checks each deer brought into the Green Ridge station for age and weight.

The three-day kill of 599 in Allegany county is running slightly ahead of the corresponding period of a year ago when 571 whitetails were slain by gunners.

Mrs. Martha E. Welker, 60, of 411 Beall Street, was admitted to Memorial Hospital yesterday afternoon with a fractured shoulder she received in a two-car accident at the corner of Smallwood and Paca streets.

Mrs. Welker was a passenger in a car operated by her daughter, Martha J. Welker, 30, also of 411 Beall Street. City Police Officer Richard L. Maier said the accident occurred when a car operated by Paulette L. Malone, 19, failed to stop at a stop sign on Paca Street.

The other youth, Ronald Flynn, 15, complained of back injuries and was admitted for observation. He also was listed as "satisfactory."

Garden Club Christmas Show Opens Today

The First Federal Savings and Loan Association, although closed as usual on Sunday, was a busy place yesterday afternoon as members of the Garden Club of Cumberland prepared for their Christmas decorations exhibit, called "Christmas Is Giving."

The exhibit will be open to the public from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. and 6 to 8 p. m. today, and from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. tomorrow.

About 50 entries were brought to the display rooms yesterday. Exhibits are in seven categories, including door decorations, side table and dinner table arrangements, small decorations or favors, arrangements interpreting holiday customs of other countries, and dried arrangements.

The entries are displayed on the main floor and on the basement level of the building. Visitors will be invited to cast ballots for their selections as best in each class, plus a "best in show" selection.

Mrs. J. Donald Gibson is general chairman for the exhibit. Her committee includes Mrs. Robert Olt, Mrs. Robert Horstman, Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. Guy Bradour and Mrs. Robert Hunter.

Mrs. Reed then read a letter from Charles McMathias Jr., Congressman from Maryland's Sixth District, in which he said he feels a more feasible alternative to an amendment would be the introduction of a new bill on this matter.

He pointed out that he had introduced a bill, H. R. 9109, on November 13 this year and that it had been referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Copies of the bill and the letter were given to the group to be read and explained to their local PTA members.

Guest speaker for the evening was Willard Hawkins, superintendent of public schools of Garrett County, who spoke on "A Comparative Analysis of Swedish and American Schools." He was introduced by William McDowell, program chairman.

Mrs. Claude Ward, president of the council, presided at the meeting, which was opened with the flag salute led by Neil Smith. Mrs. Calvin Keiter, spiritual education chairman, conducted a memorial service for the late President Kennedy.

The group sang several Christmas songs with Ernest Ogden leading the singing and Mrs. Samuel Blume as pianist.

Mrs. Robert Cessna, MCPT chairman, gave a report on the Maryland PTA convention held recently in Baltimore.

Mrs. Ward announced that the next council meeting will be held February 3, 1964 at Mount Royal School.

Car Thief Eludes Officer After Chase

City Police last night were looking for a young man who stole a car in downtown Cumberland and then abandoned it after being chased into Ridgeley by Officer Robert Hershberger.

Officer Hershberger said he noticed a car fail to stop at an intersection of North Mechanic Street and an alley and then the car almost hit two other parked cars on North Mechanic.

The officer said he turned on the red light on his cruiser to stop the car near Market Street, but the car sped off toward Ridgeley. Near the subway in Ridgeley a young man jumped out and ran up to the Western Maryland Railway tracks. The officer chased the man some distance but lost him in the darkness.

Police said the car, which was owned by I. D. Spencer, Short Gap, was parked on South Centre Street when it was stolen.

Marylanders Warned Of Liquor Law

With the approach of the holiday season when alcoholic beverages sales reach their peak, Louis L. Goldstein, comptroller of Maryland, reminds Marylanders of the state law and penalties for unlawfully bringing alcoholic beverages into Maryland from other states.

The law provides that a consumer, 21 or over, may personally bring into Maryland for personal consumption one quart of legally manufactured alcoholic beverages at any one time but no more than two quarts during any calendar year.

Any alcoholic beverages brought into Maryland under this situation may not be brought in for another person's use, be bartered, sold or exchanged within the state.

No one may at any one time possess within the state more than four quarts of such alcoholic beverages. The Maryland law provides the confiscation of alcoholic beverages unlawfully possessed or transported and upon conviction a penalty of not more than $1,000 fine, or two years imprisonment, or both fine and imprisonment.

Beneficiary Check Urged

All veterans of World War II who have National Service Life Insurance are being urged to check the beneficiaries of their policies to determine if the right person or persons are designated to receive or share in the insurance, said F. E. Quinn, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office in Baltimore.

Any change in family status, Mr. Quinn pointed out, may require a change in beneficiary. He said the matter should be given immediate attention by the veteran. For example, if a veteran marries, he may want to designate his wife as beneficiary, rather than his parents; if a veteran's wife dies, he may want to name a child as beneficiary, or a parent.

Mr. Quinn pointed out that the law requires the VA to pay the insurance claim to the person or persons listed as the beneficiary. Any veteran may change his beneficiary by advising the VA in writing. The letter should be addressed to the VA office to which the insurance premium is sent.

ITU Local Notes 75th Birthday With Luncheon

International Officer Speaks

A rededication to the principles of "aggressive, democratic trade unionism" was urged by John J. Pilch, first vice president of the International Typographical Union here yesterday as Cumberland Local 244 observed its diamond jubilee with a luncheon at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

Mr. Pilch praised the local union for its efforts to adhere to the principles of the "pioneers" who founded it in 1888.

"Our future will be secure if we rededicate ourselves to the principles fostered and established by these pioneers, and nurture them carefully," Mr. Pilch said.

Most of his talk concerned points of interest in the history of the ITU. He noted that when Local 244 was founded the weekly pay scale was $7.50 to $10 and the work week was "60-plus" hours.

First To Present Pins

Local 244 became the first ITU local in the nation to present newly authorized 25-year pins to veteran members at yesterday's luncheon. Mr. Pilch presented pins to Cecil S. Grimshaw, W. A. Thompson, Burland E. DeBolt, Chandler F. Smith, James P. Biller, W. Vincent Martin, William A. Miller and Angelo R. Samson.

Mr. Pilch also presented a special Honor Award plaque to Richard O. Bolden, president of Local 244; William A. Miller, vice president, and C. Raymond Weatherholt, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Weatherholt introduced honored members, including Mrs. May Orr, a charter member of Woman's Auxiliary 52, now observing its 38th anniversary; Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, a 36-year member; Mrs. Mae Biller, 30-year member; Mrs. Beulah DeBolt, president and 29-year member; Mrs. Gussie Miller and Mrs. Virginia Weatherholt.

Auxiliary Praised

The auxiliary also was praised by Mr. Pilch as a strong force for trade unionism.

Members of Local 244 with more than 40 years of service: James Orr, 51 years; Joseph A. Mackert, 46 years; Mrs. Sara Barringer, 41 years, and W. Russell Shaner, 40 years.

He also noted with regret the passing of Pius H. Boley, veteran member of the local who died this year at the age of 81.

A. Trago Brust, fine papers division public relations manager for West Virginia Pulp and Paper, set the tone of the brief speeches when he remarked that Local 244 has helped to prove that labor and management can and do hold each other in mutual respect. He also said the high standards of the ITU have helped to make the printed word "the ultimate in communication."

Mr. Bolden, the president, gave the address of welcome, and the invocation and benediction were by William A. Miller, the vice president.

Vindex Youth Has Surgery

A Garrett County boy was reported in "good" condition last night at the West Virginia University Medical center at Morgantown, where he was admitted Saturday night with a gunshot wound.

The youth, David Kinser, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kinser, of Vindex, was taken to Garrett County Memorial Hospital following the accidental shooting and later was transferred to the Morgantown hospital where he underwent surgery.

Sheriff James Frantz of Garrett County said his office is still investigating the incident, but preliminary investigations show the youth was shot when a shotgun which was standing in a corner of the Kinser residence fell over and discharged when it struck the floor.

The Kinser boy was struck with pellets in the back of his legs.

Miss Chenoweth, a daughter of Edward and Bessie (May) Chenoweth, was born in Cumberland June 17, 1944 and was a 1962 graduate of Allegheny High School.

Garrett County Has More Snow; Roads Slippery

Emergency Plan Put Into Effect

The snow emergency plan was placed in effect early last night in Garrett County, according to State Police, who said the roads were slippery in that section of Western Maryland.

A spokesman for the State Roads Commission said up to an inch and a half of snow had fallen in Garrett County by 5 p.m.

Some 14 men and 12 pieces of equipment were dispatched to plow the roads as well as spread abrasives and chemicals.

Poor visibility was reported in that county about 5 p.m. at which time a brisk wind prevailed.

Just west of Frostburg from a trace to a quarter-inch of snow had fallen and two pieces of equipment were dispatched. The emergency plan went into effect about 5:30 p.m., police said.

A cold rain was falling in Cumberland yesterday afternoon and the temperature hovered around the 40-degree mark.

The worst of the weather was felt in Garrett County and police said that east of Cumberland U. S. Route 40 was clear.

West Virginia State Police at Romney said U. S. Route 50 east and west of the Hampshire County seat was clear, although snow and ice prevailed on the highways in the Elkins area.

Snow flurries, with highest temperatures in the 30s are forecast for the western portion of Maryland today. A similar forecast holds for nearby West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Mathias Makes Statement On School Prayer

Rep. Charles McC. Mathias Jr. (R-Md) explained yesterday that he introduced a bill on November 13 which should provide protection of civil liberties and religious freedom without involving the difficulties of a discharge petition or the cumbersome problems attendant upon amending the Constitution.

Rep. Mathias issued the statement after receiving petitions and letters signed by thousands of Maryland residents requesting action on the Becker Amendment to the Constitution out of committee and onto the floor of the House.

He said he has read the full opinion of the Supreme Court in the prayer case decision and that the "rule laid down is neither as far reaching nor as drastic as early reports indicated."

"The Court," he added, "has not prohibited all religious exercises in schools but has only proscribed those compulsory religious exercises which are 'established' by law or under legal authority. The court opinion does not indicate that voluntary, spontaneous religious exercises would be unconstitutional merely because they occur on public property."

Rep. Mathias said a discharge petition, as proposed by Rep. Becker in HJ 693, presents a difficult legislative problem, is usually chaotic and is of dubious advisability.

He said his bill would implement the First Amendment by stating "Be it enacted by the Senate and House that no officer, agent or employee of the United States or any state shall prohibit, restrain or interfere with the free exercise of religion."

Young Mother Dies In Hospital

An 18-year-old Romney, W. Va., woman, who was the mother of a two-year-old son, died Saturday in Winchester (Va.) Memorial Hospital, where she was taken on Thursday after reportedly taking an overdose of a drug at her home.

She was taken by ambulance to the Hampshire County Memorial Hospital for examination and treatment and later was transferred to the hospital in Winchester.

A native of Hampshire County, she was born on January 10, 1945 and was a daughter of Mrs. Laura Smith Fishell, of Slanesville, and the late Oliver Fishell.

Besides her husband, James C. Herbaugh, she is survived by her son, Ronald; four sisters, Rose Ann, Irene, Nellie, and Mary Marie Fishell, all at home in Slanesville; and a half brother, Marvin L. Smith.

The body is at the Shaffer Funeral Home in Romney where friends will be received from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

A service will be held at the funeral home tomorrow at 2 p.m. Rev. Doyle Crutshank will officiate and interment will be in the Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

City Police last night were looking for a young man who stole a car in downtown Cumberland and then abandoned it after being chased into Ridgeley by Officer Robert Hershberger.

Officer Hershberger said he noticed a car fail to stop at an intersection of North Mechanic Street and an alley and then the car almost hit two other parked cars on North Mechanic.

The officer said he turned on the red light on his cruiser to stop the car near Market Street, but the car sped off toward Ridgeley. Near the subway in Ridgeley a young man jumped out and ran up to the Western Maryland Railway tracks. The officer chased the man some distance but lost him in the darkness.

Police said the car, which was owned by I. D. Spencer, Short Gap, was parked on South Centre Street when it was stolen.

Marylanders Warned Of Liquor Law

With the approach of the holiday season when alcoholic beverages sales reach their peak, Louis L. Goldstein, comptroller of Maryland, reminds Marylanders of the state law and penalties for unlawfully bringing alcoholic beverages into Maryland from other states.

The law provides that a consumer, 21 or over, may personally bring into Maryland for personal consumption one quart of legally manufactured alcoholic beverages at any one time but no more than two quarts during any calendar year.

Any alcoholic beverages brought into Maryland under this situation may not be brought in for another person's use, be bartered, sold or exchanged within the state.

No one may at any one time possess within the state more than four quarts of such alcoholic beverages. The Maryland law provides the confiscation of alcoholic beverages unlawfully possessed or transported and upon conviction a penalty of not more than $1,000 fine, or two years imprisonment, or both fine and imprisonment.

Beneficiary Check Urged

All veterans of World War II or earlier marriages, he may want to designate his wife as beneficiary. Insurance are being urged to check the beneficiaries of their policies to determine if the right person or persons are designated to receive or share in the insurance, said F. E. Quinn, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office in Baltimore.

Any change in family status, Mr. Quinn pointed out, may require a change in beneficiary. He said the matter should be given immediate attention by the veteran. For example, if a veteran's wife dies, he may want to name a child as beneficiary, or a parent.

Mr. Quinn pointed out that the law requires the VA to pay the insurance claim to the person or persons listed as the beneficiary. Any veteran may change his beneficiary by advising the VA in writing. The letter should be addressed to the VA office to which the insurance premium is sent.

ITU Local Notes 75th Birthday With Luncheon

International Officer Speaks

A rededication to the principles of "aggressive, democratic trade unionism" was urged by John J. Pilch, first vice president of the International Typographical Union here yesterday as Cumberland Local 244 observed its diamond jubilee with a luncheon at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

Mr. Pilch praised the local union for its efforts to adhere to the principles of the "pioneers" who founded it in 1888.

"Our future will be secure if we rededicate ourselves to the principles fostered and established by these pioneers, and nurture them carefully," Mr. Pilch said.

Most of his talk concerned points of interest in the history of the ITU. He noted that when Local 244 was founded the weekly pay scale was $7.50 to $10 and the work week was "60-plus" hours.

First To Present Pins

Local 244 became the first ITU local in the nation to present newly authorized 25-year pins to veteran members at yesterday's luncheon. Mr. Pilch presented pins to Cecil S. Grimshaw, W. A. Thompson, Burland E. DeBolt, Chandler F. Smith, James P. Biller, W. Vincent Martin, William A. Miller and Angelo R. Samson.

Mr. Pilch also presented a special Honor Award plaque to the local, and gave copies to Richard O. Bolden, president of Local 244; William A. Miller, vice president, and C. Raymond Weatherholt, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Weatherholt introduced honored members, including Mrs. May Orr, a charter member of Woman's Auxiliary 52, now observing its 38th anniversary; Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, a 36-year member; Mrs. Mae Biller, 30-year member; Mrs. Beulah DeBolt, president and 29-year member; Mrs. Gussie Miller and Mrs. Virginia Weatherholt.

Auxiliary Praised

The auxiliary also was praised by Mr. Pilch as a strong force for trade unionism.

Mr. Weatherholt also recognized members of Local 244 with more than 40 years of service: James Orr, 51 years; Joseph A. Mackert, 46 years; Mrs. Sara Barringer, 41 years, and W. Russell Shaner, 40 years.

He also noted with regret the passing of Pius H. Boley, veteran member of the local who died this year at the age of 81.

A. Trago Brust, fine papers division public relations manager for West Virginia Pulp and Paper, set the tone of the brief speeches when he remarked that Local 244 has helped to prove that labor and management can and do hold each other in mutual respect. He also said that the high standards of the ITU have helped to make the printed word "the ultimate in communication."

Mr. Bolden, the president, gave the address of welcome, and the invocation and benediction were by William A. Miller, the vice president.

Garrett County Has More Snow; Roads Slippery

Emergency Plan Put Into Effect

The snow emergency plan was placed in effect early last night in Garrett County, according to State Police, who said the roads were slippery in that section of Western Maryland.

A spokesman for the State Roads Commission said up to an inch and a half of snow had fallen in Garrett County by 5 p.m.

Some 14 men and 12 pieces of equipment were dispatched to plow the roads as well as spread abrasives and chemicals.

Poor visibility was reported in that county about 5 p.m. at which time a brisk wind prevailed.

Just west of Frostburg from a trace to a quarter-inch of snow had fallen and two pieces of equipment were dispatched. The emergency plan went into effect about 5:30 p.m., police said.

A cold rain was falling in Cumberland yesterday afternoon and the temperature hovered around the 40-degree mark.

The worst of the weather was felt in Garrett County and police said that east of Cumberland U. S. Route 40 was clear.

West Virginia State Police at Romney said U. S. Route 50 east and west of the Hampshire County seat was clear, although snow and ice prevailed on the highways in the Elkins area.

Snow flurries, with highest temperatures in the 30s are forecast for the western portion of Maryland today. A similar forecast holds for nearby West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Mathias Makes Statement On School Prayer

Rep. Charles McC. Mathias Jr. (R-Md) explained yesterday that he introduced a bill on November 13 which should provide protection of civil liberties and religious freedom without involving the difficulties of a discharge petition or the cumbersome problems attendant upon amending the Constitution.

Rep. Mathias issued the statement after receiving petitions and letters signed by thousands of Maryland residents requesting action on the Becker Amendment to the Constitution out of committee and onto the floor of the House.

He said he has read the full opinion of the Supreme Court in the prayer case decision and that the "rule laid down is neither as far reaching nor as drastic as early reports indicated."

"The Court," he added, "has not prohibited all religious exercises in schools but has only proscribed those compulsory religious exercises which are 'established' by law or under legal authority. The court opinion does not indicate that voluntary, spontaneous religious exercises would be unconstitutional merely because they occur on public property."

Rep. Mathias said a discharge petition, as proposed by Rep. Becker in HJ 693, presents a difficult legislative problem, is usually chaotic and is of dubious advisability.

He said his bill would implement the First Amendment by stating "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that no law shall be enacted which shall prohibit, restrain or interfere with the free exercise of religion."
